CROWDS GATHER TO HEAR HUGHES

BURDEN OF RAIL STRIKE MENACE IS ON CHIEFS

If Worst Comes, Public Will Know Where Responsibility Lies, Wilson Tells Heads of Roads; Statement to Public

CONFERENCE ENDS, BUT DECISION NOT REACHED

President Recommends Day of Eight Hours, and Asserts Railroads Should Yield On Point Without Hesitation

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—After an hour's conference with President Wilson today, the thirty-three railroad presidents left the White House without giving any indication that they had abandoned their stand for arbitration, but with assurances that the negotiations were not ended.

The railroad executives gave no final answer to the president's proposals, but will deliberate on them today and see President Wilson again, probably Monday. In his address to the officials, President Wilson said:

If a strike comes, the public will know where the responsibility rests. It will not be on me.

While the railroad presidents were in conference with President Wilson, the president gave out a statement outlining his plan of settlement, saying:

It seems to me a thoroughly practical and entirely fair program and I think the public has the right to expect its acceptance. The eight-hour day now undoubtedly has the sanction of the judgment of society in its favor and should be adopted as a basis for wages even where the actual work to be done cannot be completed within eight hours, the president said.

SUGGESTS COMMISSION.

At the same time the president proposed that the demand for extra pay for overtime and all other issues be postponed, pending an investigation and suggestion that if necessary he would obtain authority from Congress to appoint a body of impartial investigators to probe the whole situation. This body, he said, would report to Congress though without making any recommendation. President Holden of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, told the president that the roads continued to stand for arbitration and did not believe it right to ask them to abandon that principle. He made it plain, however, that the full power of attorney to reject or accept the president's plan lay finally with the railway managers' committee, which is in the city, but has not participated in any of the conferences with the president since the railway executives arrived. It is expected that before the final crisis has been reached, the railroad managers will be asked to the White House to indicate whether they will accept or reject the president's plan.

MAY ASK MORE TIME.

There is strong indication today that rather than reject it and precipitate a strike, they will ask for more time and further conferences. The president's intimation that the Interstate Commerce Commission ight be expected to give a very fair consideration to rate increases if the eight-hour day change is made, is one of the things the managers will try to clear up.

The president closed the conference with a thirty-minute address to the presidents. He said that it is "a condition, not a principle," which is at stake in the present negotiations. It would be unfair and impracticable to insist upon arbitration when the men have repeatedly refused it and when there is no system or law to compel it, he added.

He said he could not act as judge, but only make suggestions. He offered, he said, what he believed was a practical means of meeting the situation and urged the executives to put it into effect. When the commission has been appointed, it can see how the plan works and then the real facts in the case will come to light, he said. Pending an investigation by this commission, the president said, he was faced by a wide difference of opinion on the part of the men and the managers as to the task of applying the eight-hour day principle to railway operation and that he himself was obviously unable to judge which contention was right.

STATEMENT TO PUBLIC.

The President's statement says:

I have recommended the concession of an eight-hour day, that is, the substitution of an eight-hour day at present for the ten-hour day in all the existing practices and agreements. I made this recommendation because I believed the concession right. The eight-hour day now undoubtedly has the sanction of a judgment of

Ally Loss Big, Asserts Berlin

Germans Acknowledge That Line Shortened

BERLIN, Aug. 19.—The war office report of today says the Germans victoriously resisted the stupendous Anglo-French attack on the Somme front which was made yesterday, but that between Guillemont and Maurepas the Germans shortened their line somewhat. The report says that massed Anglo-French forces combined in a tremendous assault on the German lines on the Somme battle-front, attacking on a twelve-mile front extending eastward from Ovillers, and that the trenches formerly held by the Germans on both sides of Guillemont were captured, but with heavy enemy losses.

At the same time a terrific battle occurred on the northeastern front of Verdun where all French attacks were beaten back excepting in the mountain woods. On that sector trenches which had been destroyed were abandoned to the French, according to the report.

BRITISH MAKE GREAT GAIN ON SOMME FRONT

Germans Thrown Back on Virtually Every Sector of Six-Mile Line.

LONDON, Aug. 19. British troops hurled back the German line north of the Somme last night, in one of the greatest gains made by the allies since the opening smash of the great offensive.

The Germans were thrown back on virtually every sector of a six-mile front, extending from a point south of Thiepval to the point where the British lines link up with the French near Guillemont.

The greatest British gain was scored from the Foureaux wood eastward to the junction point with the French. General Haig announced this afternoon that the British advanced on a two-mile front in this region, penetrating German trenches to a depth of from 200 to 600 yards.

The capture of the western outskirts of the village of Guillemont and important advances north, northwest and east of the village, leaves the Germans still clinging to the ruins of the village in a deep pocket and in danger of being cut off. The Germans made determined counter attacks during the night but were repulsed except at one point, where they gained a little ground.

East and southeast of Mocquet farm (southeast of Thiepval) the British advanced 300 yards. Further east several hundred yards of enemy trenches were captured between the Foreaux wood and the Bapaume-Albert highway, an advance that brought the British lines closer to the fortified village of Martinpuch, of the local German strongholds.

Still further east the British drove the Germans from the western outskirts of Guillemont and pressing on northwest of the town captured hostile positions between Delville wood and Cinchy, capturing also German positions in the Ochads, north of Longueval.

President Summons More Rail Chiefs

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—President Wilson this afternoon summoned additional western railroad presidents to Washington. The President's telegram said:

Discussion of the matters involved in the threatened railway strike is still continuing. It is highly important that I should personally confer with you or some one authorized to represent you at the earliest possible moment. Hope you can arrange matters so as to be able to come to Washington at once.

The additional railroad men invited are: Louis W. Hill, Great Northern; A. J. Earling, St. Paul; J. N. Hannaford, Northern Pacific; E. P. Ripley, Santa Fe; J. N. Dickinson, Rock Island; E. F. Kearny, Wabash; W. C. Nixon, St. Louis & San Francisco; P. U. Mudge, Denver & Rio Grande; C. M. Levey, Western Pacific; W. G. Bester, Central of New Jersey; E. Pennington, M. St. P & Ste. St. Marie; M. H. Smith, Louisville & Nashville; C. A. Shaff, M., K. & T.; Edwin Gould, St. Louis & Southwestern.

Wounded Soldiers Sue for Damages

DOUGLAS, Arizona, Aug. 19.—Sergeants Harry Pittson and Robert M. Martin and Private John G. Regoya, all of Company F, Fourteenth Infantry, have filed suit in the superior court of Cochise county at Tombstone against the Bisbee-Naco Water Company. They ask $5000 each for injuries sustained when they were shot by William Humphreys, a guard employed by the company, at its plant in Naco. Company F had been detailed to guard the plant. It is alleged that Humpreys had not been notified that the soldiers were coming. As they approached the pump house on the night of June 21 the watchman opened fire, killing Walter E. Paul and wounding the other three soldiers.

BRITISH DEFEAT TURKS.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Renewal of fighting in Mesopotamia, in which the British were engaged with Turkish irregulars, is reported in an official statement given out here today. The statement says sixty of the Turkish irregulars were killed and a large number were wounded.

OAKLAND WELCOMES THEM

Governor Hughes and Mrs. Hughes wreathe themselves in their best mood—proof positive that the Republican leader's smile is not a cold proposition, as has been alleged.

DEVASTATION IS CAUSED BY BIG GULF HURRICANE

Reports Indicate Great Property Damage, but Little Life Loss.

GALVESTON, Tex., Aug. 19.—The hurricane that struck the south Texas coast late yesterday has left ruin in its wake from the mouth of the Rio Grande to Aransas Pass, 100 miles north, according to meager reports available today. All land wires are down and little can be learned by wireless.

Latest reports indicated the storm is following the course of the Rio Grande, striking army camps as it advances. At 9 o'clock it was said to be centered over Del Rio, fifty miles above Eagle Pass.

Millions of dollars in property damage and destruction of crops is believed to have been done but the only known loss of life so far is the drowning of ten of the crew of the small steamer Pilot Boy, which was wrecked on the bar off Port Aransas.

Several large steamers are believed to have been in the path of the storm, however, and gravest fears are expressed for the thousand-ton steamer Fort Morgan. She is thirty hours overdue from Puerto, Mexico. She carried a crew of twenty-three, but the number of her passengers is not known. Unless she put into a Cuban or Mexican port there is believed to be little hope of her having weathered the gale.

The fishing fleet from this port also is unreported. The big steamship Nicaragua, which has been ashore on Padre island for some time, is reported to have broken up.

Reports from Corpus Christi indicate that city sustained the greatest damage of any of the gulf ports. Every cottage facing the gulf there is reported to have been demolished, and a big 1000-foot pleasure pier wrecked. No loss of life is reported from there.

The storm passed inland in the Brownsville district with great rapidity, leveling army tents and exposing perishable munitions to the deluge of rain. Over 3000 militia and regulars are in that region. While thousands of dollars worth of government supplies are believed to have been destroyed, no casualties have been reported.

Diver Captain Praised for Sinking 100 Ships

AMSTERDAM, via London, Aug. 19.—In recognition of his sinking of 100 vessels of the entente allies, Captain-Lieutenant Walter Forstmann, commander of a German submarine, has been given the Order of Pour Le Merite by the German emperor, says a Berlin despatch received here. The ships sunk by him, including war vessels, aggregated 260,000 tons and their total value is estimated at £30,000,000 sterling, the despatch adds.

New York Liner Victim of Diver

Italian Steamship Is Reported "Sunk"

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The Italian steamship Stampalia, which plies between New York and Italian ports, has been sunk, says a despatch to Lloyd's.

The Stampalia was a passenger liner of 9000 tons gross. In common with the other Italian liners she mounted guns for protection from submarines. The last report of her movements was her arrival on July 30 at Genoa from New York, so that she apparently was sunk on the return journey to the United States. She was commanded by Captain Lavarello.

The Stampalia had accommodations for 1700 passengers. On her recent voyages from Italy to New York passenger traffic has been light and the agents in New York of the line said today she probably carried a comparatively small number of passengers. Her crew numbered about 170. No word has been received in New York by the agents of the line of the reported sinking of the Stampalia at the time of the arrival of the London press despatch.

Bulgarian Troops Repulsed in Serbia

SALONIKA, Aug. 1.—Bulgarian troops who attacked the positions of the entente allies along the Serbian frontier on August 17 were repulsed and thrown back upon their original positions after sustaining enormous losses, says the Serbian official statement. The Serbian statement, issued August 18, announces:

Yesterday at dawn the Bulgarians attacked along our front in the sector of Moglemica, north of the villages of Scupina and Pojar. The Bulgarians were repulsed by our powerful counter-attacks and were thrown back upon their original positions after sustaining enormous losses.

The Bulgarians occupied the town and station of Florina.

An enemy air squadron threw bombs on the British ambulances at Verbekop. Six persons were killed.

Nineteen allied airships dropped eighty bombs on the enemy hangars at Monastir. Excellent results were observed.

The capture by Bulgarians of the Greek town of Florina, five miles from the Greeco-Serbian border and fifteen miles southeast of Monastir, was reported yesterday by the Berlin war office.

Russians Break Austro-German Line

PETROGRAD, Aug. 19.—The Russians have broken through the Austro-German lines on the Stokhod river in Volhynia and have made a considerable advance, it was announced today.

NEW BIG GUNS HURLING DEATH IN GERMAN LINES

Allies Have Weapon That Throws Ton Shell Every Two Minutes.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Giant 16-inch guns, outranging the famous German 42-centimeters, are playing a most important role in the allied advance on both banks of the Somme.

Despatches from the French front today revealed for the first time the presence of these new artillery monsters. Capable of throwing every two minutes a shell weighing nearly a ton, the new allied cannon are blowing great holes in the German works and systematically leveling fortified villages.

An intense artillery battle in which allied guns of all calibers battered away at the German lines preceded yesterday's gains in the fighting north of the Somme. The British pushed their lines forward near Ginchy, exerting more pressure on the Germans nearly surrounded in Guillemont. The French penetrated the village of Maurepas and increased the danger of Germans clinging to Clery village.

Despatches from Berlin today reported a deadlock on both the Russian and Italian fronts, though the latest official statement from Petrograd announced gains in the Carpathians.

Evidence that both sides in the Balkans are preparing for serious fighting was contained in the announcement that the Bulgarians have crossed the Greek border and occupied a strategic position at the town of Florina, threatening the French right flank.

California Tennis Champion Defeated

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 19.—I. Kumagae, the Japanese tennis marvel, this afternoon won the singles title in the Casino club's invitation tourney from William Johnston of California, the American national champion. The score of Kumagae's victory was 6-1, 9-7, 5-7, 2-6, 9-7.

PARIS, Aug. 19.—The report that the German Crown Prince Frederick William is wounded and is in a hospital at Verdun is authoritatively denied.

Laboratory Explosion Shakes Three Cities

DAVENPORT, Ia., Aug. 19.—An explosion which shook the tri-cities of Moline, Rock Island and Davenport last night destroyed a laboratory of the Rock Island arsenal. The explosion was followed by a fire. The loss was about $2000.

CANDIDATE GREETED AT AUDITORIUM BY PARTY ENTHUSIASTS

Standard Bearer Draws Vast Throng to Greatest Political Rally in County's History

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR PARTY

Demonstrations Accompany Nominee on Way to Auditorium, Where Campaign Issues Are Told

Bathed in the golden glow of a typical California summer day, dressed in waving folds of Old Glory, and expectant to a degree, Oakland waited until 3:30 o'clock today to greet Charles Evans Hughes, Republican nominee for president of the United States—the unanimous choice of the Grand Old Party, and standard-bearer in a campaign which has as a slogan Americanism. Long before the hour set for Hughes' arrival hundreds had found their way to seats in the municipal auditorium. When the forty-piece band began its concert at 2:30 a large number of seats were taken by those who wanted to be close to the speakers' platform.

LEAVES S. F. AT 3 P. M.

The special Key Route boat carrying the nominee and his large party left San Francisco at 3 o'clock. The national colors were used to mark the occasion and when the party arrived at the mole on this side the special train was decorated with red, white and blue. Special detectives, plain-clothes men and uniformed officers were freely distributed and no disorder was occasioned. As the train moved along the right of way from Hollis street into Twelfth and Union and thence up Twelfth street to Clay, where the party was met by a local committee and fifty automobiles, residents along the route cheered and waved to the train.

Leaving the train at Twelfth and Clay streets, Hughes was escorted direct to the auditorium. Every detail of the reception had been most carefully planned so that no time would be lost and the former governor allowed to speak at length to Oakland and its environs on the national issues. Hughes has all the qualities of a public orator. His long training at the bar and as a member of the Supreme Court of the United States has qualified him for his present task.

IN GOOD VOICE.

Although somewhat wearied last night after his many addresses during the day through the Sacramento valley, and his efforts in the city, Hughes recovered completely this morning and in his talks in San Francisco was in excellent voice. He is under careful observation by his physician and is not permitted to overdo himself.

Clinton G. Dodge, chairman of the county committee, will introduce the chairman of meeting, Joseph R. Knowland.

On the huge, specially constructed platform two hundred vice-presidents will sit with the nominee. The platform has been constructed on the side of the building instead of at the end, so that Hughes may speak to the greatest possible advantage.

At 5 o'clock the party is due to leave the city via the Twelfth-street Key Route.

The honorary escort to Hughes will occupy the automobiles contributed by the Oakland Automobile Association. Each car will be decorated. No time will be wasted in getting to the auditorium.

ERECT PLATFORM.

The original plan of the committee was to use the theater section of the big municipal structure. However, after the first day of preliminary study, it was decided that the crowd would be so large that the theater would be too small. Attention was then turned to the main auditorium which seats ten thousand persons. The floor plan of seating was studied

Cost of Babies Rises in London

One More Woe Is Laid to War

LONDON, Aug. 19.—It is estimated that the all-around expenditure on a baby born this year is probably from $100 to $125 higher than in 1914.

Food alone adds about $15 to the year's cost of the war baby. Milk has gone up 4 cents a quart, and it is said that the average baby consumes from 400 to 450 pints a year. Baby foods are up about 10 per cent. Feeding bottles cost a third more, and the methylated spirit for heating the night's feed has advanced from 10 cents to 25 cents a pint.

Baby garments cost more also. Everything made of wool has risen 33 per cent in price; all the cotton and wool-mixture materials and garments are 25 per cent higher; the wholly cotton ones, owing to the rise in raw materials and labor, must be paid for at the rate of about 15 per cent more.

Even a baby's bath costs about one-third more; soap is a third dearer; the bath thermometer is up about 25 per cent; toilet powder—chiefly because of the rise in the price of the boric acid it contains—is 100 per cent dearer.

Nearly all medicines cost much more.

Perambulators are about one-fourth dearer. What formerly was sold for $15 is now $20, and so on. A cot that could be bought before the war for $5 is now $7.50; the fleecy wool mattress, baby's basket and baby's high chair are all up proportionately.

Nurse's wages have advanced $5 or more and her keep is costing at least one-third more—an increase of $50 or more a year.

Perjury Charges to Be Probed by Jury

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—The grand jury is planning to investigate alleged perjury in the Sebastian-Pratt trial and new charges which have been made since Tom O'Neil, former bodyguard to the mayor, confessed two days ago that he had fired the two shots through Sebastian's window on the mayor's suggestion. The matter will come before it as soon as it reconvenes.

Not only will the O'Neil matter be discussed, but a special investigator will inquire also into the alleged confession of perjury before the jury, which implicated Sebastian.

The district attorney's office continued the investigation of perjury in connection with the case and again went over the signed statement of O'Neil.

It is declared in political circles that the mayor would resign rather than have the city undergo another scandal such as was brought about by his previous trial.

Grocer Killed When Car and Auto Meet

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Lazar Weiss, a grocer, of 3998 Anza street, was killed when a municipal car collided with an automobile in which he was riding at Balboa street and Thirty-first avenue this morning. Motorman McIver attempted to stop and Weiss tried to swerve his automobile. The car caught the machine in the middle, cutting it almost in two. Weiss was thrown under the fender, the front wheels going over him. The fire department had to be called out to raise the car. He was about 47 years old and is survived by a widow, Mrs. Sadie Weiss.

Italians Repulse Austrian Attack

ROME, Aug. 19.—The Austrians launched an attack last night on the left wing of the Italian forces on the Carso plateau. It was announced officially today that the assault was checked by the fire of the Italian battalion.

Dead Jockey Was Youth of Fortune

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Identification has disclosed the fact that a jockey killed yesterday in a race at a Flemington, N. J., county fair under the name of Sidney Haggerty was Sidney Kahn, son of Solomon Kahn, a wealthy New York metal manufacturer, with a fortune in his own right. Kahn was 20 years old and a student at Columbia University.

The amateur jockey owned horses of his own, but in the county fair races was riding for another. His parents identified the body. They said the boy was obsessed with a desire to ride racehorses.

Sacramento to Get New Federal Office

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 19.—Sacramento is to be made division headquarters of the Federal Employment Bureau, according to an announcement made by Anthony Caminetti, commissioner general of immigration for the United States. C. H. Hannum, inspector for the immigration bureau, with offices in Sacramento, will be placed in charge of this division.

Stockton, Fresno, San Jose and Santa Rosa are the other cities in Northern California at which division offices will be established.

Three Aged Chinese Fight; One Is Dead

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 19.—One Chinese is dead and two others so badly cut and bruised that their death is expected as the result of a terrific battle in a house in the Oriental quarter late yesterday. The three men, each more than 50 years old, were found by the police locked in a small room. A woman heard groans and notified the police. The theory is that the Chinese fought among themselves until all fell exhausted. A pitchfork and two hatchets, blood covered, lay near the unconscious men.

PAINT SHOP IS BURNED.

A fire of undetermined origin, which destroyed a shed containing paints and oils at the rear of the home of George Chapman, 4106 East Tenth street, caused loss estimated at $400. There was no insurance.

and it was determined to install a specially constructed platform and sounding board on the side of the main hall. This work was immediately rushed and stands today ready for the speaker. The seats are arranged from end to end of the building. A number of ushers will be in attendance to aid people to find seats. They will be stationed on the main floor and in the gallery. The county committee and state committee have paid all costs of the reception and there will be, consequently, no charge whatsoever to the public.

The Hughes reception is expected to be the largest political gathering in the history of Alameda county. At no previous time has the city been able to house ten thousand persons under one roof during a national political campaign. For many years the old Germania hall on Webster street, since burned down, was the largest hall in the east bay community, seating about four thousand persons.

society in its favor and should be adopted as a basis for wages even where the actual work to be done be completed within eight hours.

Concerning the adjustment which should be made in justice to the railroads and their stockholders in the payment and privileges to which their men are now entitled (if such adjustments are necessary), there is a wide divergence of opinion. The railroads which have already adopted the eight-hour day do not seem to be at any serious disadvantage in respect of their cost of operation, as compared with the railroads that have retained a ten-hour day, and calculations as to the cost of the change must, if made now, be made without regard to any possible administrative economies of readjustments. Only experience can make it certain rearrangements would be fair and equitable either on behalf of the men or on behalf of the railroads. That experience would be a definite guide to the Interstate Commerce Commission, for example, in determining whether as a consequence of the change, it would be necessary and right to authorize an increase of the rates for the handling and carriage of freight (for passenger service is not affected).

MAKES PROPOSAL.

I, therefore, proposed that the demand for extra pay for overtime made by the men and the contingent proposal of the railroad authorities be postponed until facts shall have taken the place of calculations and forecasts with regard to the effect of a change to an eight-hour day; that in the meantime, while experience was developing the facts, I should seek, and if need be, obtain authority from the Congress to appoint a small body of impartial men to observe and thoroughly acquaint themselves with the results with a view to reporting to Congress at the earliest possible time the facts disclosed by their inquiries, but without recommendation of any kind; that it should then be entirely open to either or both parties to the present controversy to give notice of a termination of the present agreements with a view to inviting inquiries into suggested readjustment of pay or practice.

This seems to me a thoroughly practical and entirely fair program and I think that the public has the right to expect its acceptance.

SLAYS WIFE; SURRENDERS.

MIAMI, Ariz., Aug. 19.—Mike Milensnick, after wandering all night in the hills, returned here today and was arrested on a charge of murdering his wife last night. He admitted, the authorities said, that he bought a revolver in Los Angeles and came here yesterday to kill Mrs. Milensnick.

SHIPPING BILL IS PASSED BY SENATE

Measure Provides Method for Retaliation in Case of Blacklist.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The government shipping bill passed the Senate last night by a vote of 38 to 21, ending one of the most bitterly contested legislative struggles of the Wilson administration. The measure today received unanimous Democratic support and solid Republican opposition. It already had passed the House in a slightly different form.

An effort by Senator Borah to attach the immigration bill to the measure as a rider was defeated, 22 to 37.

The shipping bill provides for creation of a government shipping board to acquire and operate ships for rehabilitation of the American merchant marine and appropriates $50,000,000 for that purpose, to be raised by the sale of Panama canal bonds. Several important amendments were agreed to just before the final vote, among them one by Senator Hoke Smith, which would reduce the salary of the shipping board members from $10,000 to $7500 a year. Other amendments passed included one by Senator Fletcher, which would authorize the president to seek adjustment of foreign discrimination against American shipping through diplomatic negotiations and to take retaliatory action if such negotiations fail. Another by Senator Thomas would authorize the treasury to withhold clearance from masters of vessels who deliberately refuse to accept freight from American citizens without satisfactory reasons.

Won't Fight Divorce If She Gets Parrot

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Davis have no children to furnish an issue in the divorce suit Davis has instituted against his wife, Edna Viola Davis, but they have a parrot.

Following the filing of the papers in the suit Sheriff Sweeney reported the defendant had been found in Parkersburg, and the sheriff of that county was appealed to. He sent the following message in reply:

"Mrs. Davis says that if Mr. Davis gives her the parrot she will not fight the suit for divorce, but if Mr. Davis keeps the parrot then Mrs. Davis will contest the suit."

Praises Civic Ideals in His Talk to California Women

Here are some of the things Charles Evans Hughes told the women of California at a meeting arranged jointly by the Women's Auxiliary of the Republican State Central Committee and the San Francisco Center of the Civic League:

As I have had the pleasure of attending meetings of women I have realized more than I did before the intense interest that the women of the country are taking in our public life. It is clearer to me even than it was before that it is inevitable that throughout this country women should be accorded the right to vote. I should like to see that issue removed from our politics and further agitation made unnecessary. I like to have the women taking their part with men as citizens. I deprecate opposition to a movement which I believe cannot fail to be ultimately successful, for I think that the delay and the agitation which are sure to accompany it will tend to the detriment of our political life, and that the question should be settled speedily for the entire country, and that it should be accepted as a fact that women and men as fellow citizens are to take part in the government of this land.

NOMINEE UNFETTERED.

Any one who studies our economic conditions and the tendencies of our life, it seems to me, must arrive at the conclusion that I suggested with respect to the inevitableness of that result. I have had occasion to address many audiences in the past few days. None has shown a deeper interest in the vital concerns of the day than have the audiences of women; and it is very gratifying to meet this large assemblage on the occasion of the visit to California.

There is every reason why the women of the country should be particularly interested in this campaign. I like to speak of our national housekeeping and the importance of having good national housekeeping.

Did you ever reflect upon the extent of our national business. It is of the utmost importance that we should learn to conduct our public business in a skillful, economic manner. We must learn to avoid every unnecessary waste. We have got to check extravagance. One of the greatest problems in American life is the pressure of political expense and the weight of the public burden upon our communities. We find it in every direction. I do not speak of unnecessary extension of governmental activity. There is enough that is absolutely essential in the extension of governmental activity, in city and state and nation, to give us the utmost concern with respect to the economy of our administration.

SPEAKS AS TO MEN.

Now, when I speak to an audience of women, I speak to them just as I would speak to an audience of men. I assume that you are interested in these fundamental questions of administration of government. I assume that you know, as well as all of our people should know, that the President is primarily an executive. He has relations to legislation, to be sure; he has relations to the judiciary through his appointments; but primarily he is in charge of the administration of the government, the great government business. And there is nothing more important in our land than that we should have that business thoroughly well conducted.

Now, you cannot have good national housekeeping under our present system. It is a system which invites appropriations without a fair consideration of all the demands that press upon government and the means at our command to satisfy them. If you went through the actual course which is taken in passing our appropriation bills I am sure you would be astounded. I think I may say without exaggeration that there is not a great corporation in our land that could live and be successful under the financial methods adopted by our government, so unmindful of proper business-like, systematic methods are those which have been in vogue.

Now, this is a very plain proposition, but it is a very fundamental one; and I tell you that if we are going to have dominant Americanism in this country, if we are to have a realization of our high ideals we have got to work in the humdrum routine of administration quite as well as to proclaim our principle on our national holiday. We have got to have patriotism in our housekeeping. We have got to have it in every department of our public administration. If I am chosen to represent this great people in executive office, I propose that we shall have proper administration, by competent men, of an economical character, in order that this country may get on a proper financial footing.

NATIONAL HONOR.

I was glad to have Mrs. Krebs refer to your intense desire for the maintenance of national honor. That lies very close to my heart. We should have the friendship of the world. We should have and deserve the respect of every nation. We are friendly to all. We have no policies which should bring us into serious difficulty. But, my friends, the lines of peace and security are the lines of firmness and self-respect with regard to our known rights. If by weakness we invite discontent, if we betray a disinclination to make our deeds equal our words, there is great danger that our peace shall be threatened, because in that case there is a tendency to see how far those interested may be able to go before they reach the line of resistance. We can stand firm and surefooted when we deal with our known rights, conscious that we shall only have respect in enforcing that which all know we are entitled to have enforced. There is the security of the great American Nation.

If you could have looked with me over the audiences that it has been my privilege to address in the last two weeks, you would have been struck with the strength and potency of American life. There is not one of these ideals that is incapable of achievement. We can have contentment. We can have peace. We can have security. We can have all these provided we have an unswerving loyalty to the flag, an intelligent co-operation, and those wise policies which will foster our industries and protect our enterprises; and provided further, that while we correct abuses, we make sure to open the avenues for honorable American achievement throughout the world.

14,000 HEAR PARTY LEADER

Great Gathering in San Francisco Packs Auditorium to Listen to Nominee.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Governor Hughes addressed one of the largest gatherings he has faced during his entire "swing around the circle" in the Civic Auditorium here last night. Fourteen thousand persons, it was estimated, packed the huge building to the doors.

The candidate placed the principal emphasis during his speech on a demand for greater efficiency in government, a higher tone of American life and leadership and a foreign policy that will command the respect of the whole world.

He denounced the Democratic tariff policy and asserted that America was saved from panic by the business created two years ago by the European war, but added that he didn't believe that "even the European war can save the Democratic party."

FAVORS PREPAREDNESS.

Governor Hughes declared strongly in favor of preparedness and said he did not believe there is any danger of militarism in this country, adding: "The danger is all the other way."

In discussing preparedness he said:

This mixing of politics and business is always bad in government, but mixing politics and military preparation is the worst thing that can happen to a nation.

Referring to Mexico and the Vera Cruz expedition, Governor Hughes declared:

We intervened, but we didn't stay intervened. We had an intervention for an ignoble purpose and a retreat without accomplishing anything except the destruction of the only government Mexico had.

We do not want any bluster, he said, in concluding. We do not want any braggadocio. We are not aggressive. But the name "American Citizen" ought to be as proud a title as a man can wear, and ought to have the power of the United States Government behind it everywhere on this earth.

Governor Charles Evans Hughes was up and about early this morning showing no mark of fatigue from yesterday's travel, speech-making and hand-shaking, and was ready for a busy forenoon. By 9 a. m. the Republican candidate for President was ready for breakfast and at 9:30 was visited by a committee headed by national committeemen, William Crocker, Francis V. Keesling, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, and Chester Rowell, representing the Governor. There was a short conference in Governor Hughes' apartment at the Palace Hotel and this was followed by a greeting to a number of personal and political friends who took occasion to call upon the candidate.

TALKS TO MECHANICS.

The chief event of the morning was the massing of 6000 mechanics of the Union Iron Works in the street in front of the entrance to the gigantic shipbuilding plant in the Potrero district. The whistle at the power house was sounded at 11 o'clock and the word had been passed along that at that hour every man would be excused from his work and given an opportunity to greet Governor Hughes. Headed by J. J. Tynan, vice-president and general manager and the other officers of the big organization, the office force and mechanical department were assembled. Governor Hughes arrived on time, accompanied by Crocker, Keesling, Rowell, Mixon and many other Republican leaders, and there one of the most practical of the candidate's addresses was delivered.

The coming of Governor Hughes was the signal for cheering and applause such as only male voices can express, and there had been attracted to the scene at least 5000 persons, in addition to the employees of the plant itself. In all there were close to 11,000 men, women and children in the open-air audience and every word of the candidate was heard on the clear, crisp air of the morning.

Following the address to the workers the Hughes party were hurried in automobiles to the Commercial Club on the top floor of the Merchants' Exchange building, where luncheon was partaken of followed by another address. At 2:30 p. m. Governor Hughes addresses the newspaper men's conference at the Palace Hotel. Following a 15-minute talk he leaves San Francisco at 3 o'clock for Oakland and the monster celebration awaiting him there.

John Tait closed his restaurant for the noon hour today and sent almost his entire floor crew to the Commercial Club to assist in serving the luncheon. Tait himself superintended the service. It is understood the other big cafes also loaned waiters to the club.

Strychnine Kills Crows But Not Chickens

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 19.—Experts in universities and colleges of the state have been asked to inform the state department of agriculture why strychnine will kill crows and not affect chickens when eaten.

The state livestock and sanitary board stirred up the question by sending out a notice urging that crows be exterminated and giving instructions as to use of the poison.

Some people wanted to know if chickens would not be harmed by it, but the board officials replied that they would not, and told of the result of an experiment by one man who had written to the department that he had fed strychnine in corn to brown Leghorn chickens and that they had not minded it a bit.

When he threw it out for the crows to eat he had to send out burial parties. On the other hand, quail did not seem to mind it a particle.

VITAL QUESTIONS DEALT WITH BY G. O. P. CANDIDATE

What the Republican party stands for, its position on questions of grave national and international importance, were told an audience of 14,000 in the San Francisco Auditorium last night. Governor Hughes showed a profound grasp of the topics on which he touched. In part, he said:

The great national aim that we have in view transforms all local differences, and we are together, reunited, inspired by the loftiest traditions of our historic party, and devoted to the accomplishments of those great achievements upon which must rest our enduring prosperity as a nation.

I desire then in speaking of preparedness we should take no narrow view. We live in a very critical period. I wish we could have a vision of the future. There is a new world in process of formation. Out of the great European conflict will issue a new Europe; but there must be in a very true sense a new America to meet the exigencies of that time. It must be an America that has found itself; it must be an America that takes a long look ahead, not content with the prospect of a few years, even of a decade or a score of years, but an America planning for the twentieth century.

I think that our friends on the other side are in rather a lamentable predicament at this time. They knew four years ago a great deal about the Constitution of the United States. That today they are not so sure of. Just permit me to read to you what they said to you four years ago:

"We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic party that the Federal Government under the Constitution has no right or power to impose or collect tariff duties except for the purpose of revenue."

TRAVESTY ON LAW.

What a travesty on constitutional law that assertion was! It was a survival of a past which has been honored by constant departure from similar enunciations in previous platforms of the same party. We today recognize the fact that not only is it constitutional to so adjust our system of duties as to foster American industry, but it is absolutely essential to the prosperity of the American people.

"The doctrine which was announced in the platform which I have read, was attempted, to a certain degree, to be applied in the passage of the Underwood tariff bill. Now, our opponents seem to think that the American people have forgotten what followed the enactment of that measure. They seem to think that we have in the last twenty months or twenty-two months, absolutely lost sight of the conditions with which we were familiar in the latter part of the year 1913 and in the year 1914. What were the conditions then?

The unemployed were walking the streets of our cities in every part of the land. The jobless were seeking food at the hands of charity. Those who were able and willing to work were without sustenance for themselves or their families. Enterprise halted; business languished; new undertakings were not promoted. America never stops, but America hesitated; and when America hesitates the workingman is apt to lose his job.

POLICY IS DENOUNCED.

The result was that from one end of the country arose a denunciation of the policy which was deemed to have brought about this condition. Then came the outbreak of the European war. We were saved for a time from the panic that then threatened by a conserving measure, which had been passed by a Republican Congress, the Vreeland act of May 30, 1908, the provisions of which had been extended. It was through that act that we were able to tide over a perilous state. But soon came orders from abroad; supplies had to be furnished to a Europe in arms. This great country was ready, with the means at its command, for an excessively increased production.

Now, our friends have the effrontery—and I think I am entitled to call it effrontery—to point to the volume of our exports accounted for by this artificial demand created by the European war as a vindication of their record in the passage of the Underwood bill. My friends, do not believe that even the European war can save the Democratic party.

EXPLANATION IS OBVIOUS.

The explanation is so obvious that everyone knows what it is. If you will look at the other side, you will see millions of men in lines of trenches extending across the continent; millions of men fighting, and back of them in each nation are other millions of men preparing and furnishing to them the means for fighting. They have left the ordinary pursuit of peace to consume wealth in war. Who feeds them? Who clothes them? Who provides them with the great quantity of supplies that are needed to make up a part in their own production? Why, in a year our exports of ordinary provisions which are necessary to feed and clothe nations leaped 100 per cent, 00 per cent, 800 per cent, and in some cases $500 and 3000 per cent.

Our opponents spoke of the munitions which we are manufacturing as but a comparatively small part of our exports. True it is, but it is not in munitions alone that we feel the stimulus of the war; that it is not in the manufacture of munitions alone that we feel the stimulus of the war. We feel it on every hand. There is a great loss on production that must be made good. We are making it good. That great exorbitant demand which now exists on account of that struggle, what will happen when that demand is withdrawn? What will happen when we come to the ordinary bases of production? What will happen when those millions of men, alert, disciplined, highly trained, turn to the pursuits of peace?

NATION MUST PLAN WISELY.

It is then, my friends, that the Nation must look to itself and wisely plan and fearlessly and fairly apply the great principle of protection of American industry, if it is to hold its own in the commercial war that undoubtedly will succeed the European war.

Now, I believe in a tariff commission. I believe in dealing in these matters according to the best obtainable information. I do not believe in going at it blindly. Congress should have all the information it can get. This should be done as fairly and scientifically as possible. And let me say here what I have repeatedly said:

If any one expects to pull off some private advantage at the public expense through a readjustment of the tariff, they will be disappointed, if I can prevent them from succeeding. But I do propose that we shall have a constructive policy, which shall foster and not cripple; which shall build up and not destroy; which shall count American achievement something honorable and not to be reduced; which will set the United States ahead, worthy to compete with any nation on earth in this economic struggle.

I believe that we should have a better condition of military preparedness in this country. I see by your applause that there are a great many here who but a short time ago were classed as "nervous and excited."

Now, this again is a matter to be dealt with reasonably, quietly, carefully, adequately. I have little patience—I was going to say patience, but that is too strong a word, for I do not think we should get impatient at anything in this country—but I cannot quite understand the views of some of our friends who think we are in danger of militarism. As I view it, there is no danger of militarism in this country. The danger is all the other way.

MUST STAND TEST.

It is a time when the smallest nation on earth that develops to the highest degree its power, its resources, can hold its head up with the highest, because that demands respect, and the nation which, with great resources and with extraordinary opportunity falls below its power of development, falls below the standard to which it should attain. It is that nation which must meet with disesteem when in competition with the other nations of the world. The great watchword of the twentieth century, irrespective of its form, is efficiency; and America must stand the test.

When I read of the hundreds of millions of dollars appropriated for military and naval purposes, I am not satisfied. My ambition is not measured by volume of appropriation. I want to know how that money is spent. I want to know whether we get in potency what we are paying for.

In all this we have no threatening attitude. We are not aggressive. We desire nothing that anybody else has. We are not seeking to enlarge our possessions. We do not wish to exploit anybody. We treasure the ideals of peace. We want the progress which peace alone can secure. We simply want the strength of a self-respecting nation, that is not willing to be misunderstood.

I deplore the extent to which men of training have been removed from our diplomatic service under this Administration. I deplore it because I cannot but think that it is a serious injury to our prestige and our just influence. Now, when I say a thing like that I do not want anyone to say that that is merely destructive criticism because that is one side of the shield. On the other side is that I propose that we shall have trained men and competent men in all our diplomatic intercourse. Then we should have our share in the development of the instrumentalities of international concord. After this great struggle is over, doubtless there will be much to be said with respect to the prevention of war. It is a great subject and one which should enlarge our interests, for in the world of the twentieth century no nation—not even the great Republic of the West—can live unto itself. We live in a world that is knit together, and while, happily, we are not concerned with the special policies of European nations and not embroiled in their particular difficulties, nevertheless we are deeply concerned in the world's peace. We ought to do our share in developing instrumentalists for the judicial determination of disputes that can be judiciously determined. Along with that, however, with the dream of the world court must be set the agencies for developing legislatively the laws and customs of international intercourse.

Another thing that we must have in mind is this. We must have correct international policies. If you want to know what I mean by an incorrect international policy I refer you to the history of our dealings in the last three years with Mexico.

FAILED TO DO RIGHT.

We have done pretty nearly everything that we ought not to have done, and we have failed to do the one thing that we ought to have done. If you want to know the one clear thing that we ought to have done, let me turn once more to this admirable statement in the Democratic platform of four years ago. Says this Democratic platform—and I repeat it, because I am so afraid that if I did not, you wouldn't recognize it as coming from that source.

"The constitutional rights of American citizens should protect them on our borders, and go with them throughout the world, and every American citizen holding or having property in any foreign country is entitled to and must be given the full protection of the United States Government both for himself and for his property."

That I believe. That we propose to practice, and not simply declare.

I wish I could stop to talk to you tonight upon what I think necessary to give this Nation the place that it deserves. It is not simply that we should be respected because we respect ourselves; it is not simply that we should have unswerving loyalty to the flag; it is not simply that we should have protection of American industries; it is not simply that we should endeavor to realize our humanitarian ideals. It is that we should exhibit our patriotism in the ordinary work of public administration by limiting waste and extravagance and making it possible to push the efficient activities of government without imposing an intolerable burden of taxation. That is the lesson of the future—progress and efficiency; patriotism and public thrift; patriotism not simply on the Fourth of July, but in the room of the chief administrator of every bureau of the Government on the working days of every week in the year.

PROUD TO BE AMERICANS.

I have a vision of America inspired to make to some extent real our vision of human brotherhood, and I have the vision of America in all the manifold work of administration, both Federal and State, showing its talent, capacity for free government in the competence of the work that it undertakes, in the wisdom of its plans and the great economy of execution of plans. I have a vision of men united in conscious co-operation, proud of the title of American citizen, not simply because it spells the individual opportunity we so highly prize, but because it also spells that sense of community interest and the desire to co-operate which we must have, if we are to meet the problems of the twentieth century. To those ideals, if you desire it, my friends, I give loyally my service.

TO HOLD BARBECUE.

HEALDSBURG, Aug. 19.—A buck barbecue will be a feature of the entertainment being provided for the degree team and members of Amity Masonic lodge of San Francisco, who are to be guests of Sotoyome lodge of Healdsburg, Saturday night and Sunday. Oscar Frellson, worshipful master of Sotoyome lodge, headed a party of hunters that returned last night from the Skaggs Springs country with two bucks for the barbecue.

FIGHTING ON KOVEL FRONT RAGES ANEW

Stubborn Battle Breaks Out After Lull of Several Days, While Slavs Press Advance in Galicia and Carpathians

Petrograd Reports Repulse of Eight Furious Attacks Near Svinichi; Encounters Along the Stockhod Gains Town

PETROGRAD, Aug. 19.—Heavy fighting has broken out on the Russian front east of Kovel, after a lull of several days while the Russians pressed their advance in Galicia and near the Carpathians.

The war office announced today that in stubborn fighting along the Stochod river the Czar's troops broke through the Austro-German position and captured the town of Toboly. A considerable advance was scored in this fighting.

Further south, near Svinichi, the Russians repulsed eight desperate enemy attacks that followed a heavy bombardment.

In the Pripet marsh district northeast of Kovel the Russians captured enemy positions west of Lake Nobel, in the Chevyschе river region.

Dairyman Is Killed by Bull at Oakdale

OAKDALE, Aug. 19.—Louis Ottolini, a dairyman, was killed by a big Holstein bull. Ottolini went into the corral to do his milking and as usual opened the gate to drive the bull into his own pasture. He evidently drove the animal beyond the usual stopping point outside the gate and the bull turned and charged him. The bull knocked Ottolini to the ground, breaking his neck and killing him instantly.

P. Andreotti rushed into the corral, drove the bull away and pulled the dead man out of the corral.

The bull later was shot to death.

Ottolini was 67 years of age, a former resident of San Benito and Hollister. He was a member of the San Benito Lodge of Masons and a member of the Hollister Chapter of Royal Arch Masons. The funeral was held today, interment being made in the Masonic cemetery at Modesto.

To Tell of Trials in War Countries

An account of his experiences in the Russia of war and famine will be given tomorrow evening at the Congregation Beth Jacob, Ninth and Castro streets, by Rabbi Isaac Braude. The lecturer has just returned from the land of the Czar, where he saw intense suffering among his co-religionists.

Rabbi Braude will also report on the money sent to the sufferers by various relief societies and tell how it is being expended to secure food and clothing for the Jewish poor. The talk will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

I. Goldman will act as chairman of the evening and B. Garfinkle secretary. The committee appointed to make arrangements consists of Fred Kahn, A. S. Lavenson, Abraham Jonas, S. N. Lesser and M. Goldwater.

Bowen Funeral Will Be Held Here Monday

The funeral of Charles R. Bowen, one of the founders of the Goldberg-Bowen Company, who died at his home, 1927 Market street, will be held from the late residence next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be private. He was 85 years old and had lived sixty-four years in Oakland. Born in Rehoboth, Mass., he came across the continent at the age of 21 to seek his fortune. Surviving him are Henry A. and Willard H. Bowen, sons, Bessie V. Bowen, a daughter, and Mrs. Mary S. Blanding of Alameda, a sister.

Auto Hits Standing Machine; Woman Hurt

Miss Rhea Simon, 611 Thirty-first street, was injured about the head and face late last night when the motor car in which she was riding with Meyer Steine, 1700 Steiner street, San Francisco, crashed into the rear of a car driven by W. S. Gray, 2471 Sixty-second avenue, at Forty-fifth street and Telegraph avenue. She is at her home today, under the care of a physician.

Gray had stopped his car at Forty-fifth street to permit a friend to alight. It was while he was talking to his friend that Stein drove his car into the rear of the Gray machine, according to the police.

M. E. Church Has Corner On Worms

McGREGOR, Iowa, Aug. 19.—Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal church here have a close monopoly of the first class angle worm supply of this locality and they have forbidden any digging in the churchyard—that being the scene of the monopoly—on Saturday or Sunday, in the hope that those who can't fish will come to church.

VETERAN IS DEAD.

PETALUMA, Aug. 19.—Patrick H. Murphy, naval veteran, who served in the Civil war and saw the battle of the Monitor and Merrimac, is dead here. Murphy was honorably discharged from the service at Mare Island in 1870. He leaves a widow and a son, George B. Murphy, manager of the G. P. McNear Company. Murphy was commander of the Antietam Post, G. A. R.

TRUANCY LESS.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 19. — Although the enrollment in the San Francisco schools fell off 648 during the school year just concluded, the daily average attendance increased 798, indicating that the authorities of the bay city have lessened truancy and have strictly enforced school attendance, according to Job Wood Jr., statistician of the state department of education.

TRANSCONTINENTAL AUTO TRIP ENDED

Bridgeport to Berkeley Over Northern Route Takes Three Months.

BERKELEY, Aug. 19. — A trip across the continent from Bridgeport, Conn., to Berkeley has been completed by Louis B. Sammis, a young business man of the former city, who made the entire trip by way of the northern route in an automobile. Sammis came west to join his wife, who is the daughter of H. I. Stern of 2322 Cedar street. He was met in Aberdeen, South Dakota, by Norman B. Stern, his brother-in-law, a senior student in the University of California. Sammis was assistant manager of the largest lumber concern in Bridgeport, and gave up his position to locate on the coast.

The trans-continental trip was made by way of the Yellowstone trail. Sammis camping out the entire distance. After being joined by Stern they visited Yellowstone and Glacier National park. Sammis left the first of May and visited friends in Canada on the way.

"The greatest need from the tourist point of view and even from the preparedness point of view, for this country is good roads," said Sammis today. "In New York state and in California are the only real good roads in the United States. In Montana they were fairly good and in Ohio. But in Wisconsin they were frightful. It was a happy relief to strike the wonderful California highways."

Lied About His Age; Wife Wants Divorce

If Henry Russell had kept his marriage certificate safely out of sight of his wife, she would not have discovered that he had deceived her in a manner which is a woman's special prerogative. He told his wife that he was only 40 years old, when he married her in San Bernardino in 1908, whereas he was in reality 59, according to the divorce complaint of Beatrice L. Russell. She said that she believed him until she happened one day to come across the marriage certificate and learned the truth. She is forty years younger than her husband.

The main ground for divorce is based on other charges. The plaintiff alleges that her husband told her that he no longer loved her and that he wished to get rid of her. She declares that he was once convicted of sending obscene literature through the mails to young girls, and that he insulted her relatives and visitors to the house by the language he used.

Suits on the ground of desertion have been filed by Anna M. Meyers against Paul Meyers, Annie M. Miller against John S. Miller and Kirk S. Beal against Eleanor Beal. Nellie T. Neely and Sadie Heider accuse John Neely and Frank C. Heider of cruelty in their complaints.

Drugged Fruit Given Traveler by Robber

SANTA ROSA, Aug. 19.—Joseph W. Long, commercial traveler, who was taken off the train here in an unconscious condition, was able to leave the Mary Jesse hospital today. His roll of bills, $80 in all, which were taken from his person by someone, has not been recovered. He states that after he got on the ferryboat he remembers a strange man gave him an apple and after he had eaten it and before he left the boat he commenced to feel his senses leaving him. The officers are endeavoring to locate the missing money and the person responsible for the drugging of Long. Dr. R. M. Bonar says that Long had a close call and failed to respond to treatment for several hours.

Capwell to Address San Francisco Admen

H. C. Capwell, Oakland merchant and Chamber of Commerce leader, will be the speaker Monday at the luncheon of the San Francisco Advertising Club. Capwell will speak on advertising and its value in department store work, and will explain how he founded one of the largest stores in the State. The luncheon will be held on the mezzanine floor of the Hotel St. Francis. W. W. Cribbins of Oakland will also be heard in details of next year's Pacific Coast Ad Men's convention.

Lodgemen Pay Last Honors to Brother

Funeral services for Harry E. Kastens of 5504 Kales avenue, were held under the auspices of the Spanish War Veterans and Oakland Lodge of Masons. Interment was private. He is survived by a widow, daughter and father.

The body of Kastens was found in a touring car on the Moraga road last Wednesday morning after it had been there through the night. Two bullet wounds were found in the heart, and for a time it was thought that he had been murdered. However, the suicide theory was later accepted by police and coroner's office. Kastens was a traveling salesman.

Two Firemen Injured in Fighting Blaze

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Two firemen were cut by flying glass, the Barrows Photo Studio, 714 Market street, was badly damaged and three other stores suffered loss from smoke and water in a fire early this morning. Captain John Gavin and Joseph Madden were hurt while smashing their way into the studio. A gas stove left alight started the blaze. The studio was damaged about $1000. The other firms suffering loss were the Owl Drug Company, Western Trunk Company and W. R. Johnson Optical Company.

BORDWELL'S NAME CUT FROM BALLOT

Supreme Court Decision Will Be Observed by County Clerk Gross.

Although the electors of Alameda county will receive sample ballots next week containing the name of Walter Bordwell as a candidate for the office of United States Senator, the name of the former jurist will not appear on the official ballots at the primary election on August 29, as the State Supreme Court yesterday ordered the issuance of a peremptory writ of mandate instructing the county clerk of Orange county to withhold the name from the ballot.

"The news of the decision of the Supreme Court did not reach me in time so that I could remove Bordwell's name from the sample ballots," said County Clerk George E. Gross today. "The ballots are already printed and the greater part of them are already mailed to the voters. The official ballots are not yet printed, however, and Bordwell's name will not appear on them."

The decision of the Supreme Court was not unanimous. Associate Justice Sloss wrote the major opinion ordering the writ to issue with the concurrence of Associate Justices Lorigan, Melvin and Henshaw. Associate Justice Angellotti wrote a dissenting opinion which was concurred in by Justice Lawlor.

Justice Sloss in the major opinion, said:

The right to seek election to any office is open to all persons possessing the constitutional or statutory qualifications. A citizen is, however, under no obligation to seek election to an office. He may be a candidate or refuse to be such, at his option, and in the absence of statutory provisions to the contrary, the mere fact that he has once announced his candidacy for an office does not prevent him from withdrawing as a candidate whenever he sees fit to do so. If, then, the candidate has the right to withdraw, the right should be made effectual and operative unless some insuperable obstacle intervenes. We find no such obstacle in this statute. It does not follow that the certificate of the Secretary of State must finally bind everyone with respect to the form and contents of the ballot. To give to the certificate the conclusive effect contended for by the respondent would be to elevate form above substance.

Attorney Frank P. Doherty, representing Bordwell in the writ proceedings, filed today a petition for writs of mandate directed to all the county clerks of the State, except Orange and Los Angeles county. It is estimated that 1,000,000 ballots already printed and ready for distribution in the various counties of the State will have to be destroyed. It will cost San Francisco about $2000 to print new ballots without Bordwell's name, as some 150,000 ballots have already been printed.

State Republicans to Settle Issues

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—California Republicans will have to settle their own differences in their own way; President Candidate Charles E. Hughes does not propose to recognize the existence of any friction. The Republican nominee so indicated his position today in conferences with various state leaders. In the meantime a truce was apparent between the regulars and Progressives, manifesting itself when a local photographer arranged to pose the nominee, National Committeeman Crocker and Chester H. Rowell, Progressive leader, together. The Republican candidate, it was said by those with whom he talked, feels that he should not mix in local or state issues, for the reason that he does not desire to be involved in anything except an issue with the Democrats.

Supervisor Mullins Points to Economies

Supervisor John F. Mullins spoke at several large meetings last night in his campaign for re-election. He showed his audiences the large savings made during his incumbency, the improvements at the county hospital and the installation of the efficient accounting system that has added to the economies of modern county government and given Alameda county the lowest tax rate in California.

POLITICAL NOTES

Congressman J. A. Elston spoke last night to a well-attended meeting in Emerson school and told of his experiences in the last two years in Congress. The candidate later spoke in Jefferson school in Berkeley and at two house meetings in Alameda.

On Thursday evening Elston spoke before the Swedish-American Republican Club, in South Berkeley and before the Union Iron Works men at a noon meeting.

At the Laundry Workers' picnic given at Pinehurst Thursday Joseph M. Samuels, candidate for supervisor of the Fifth district, gave a short outline of the campaign he is waging to be elected supervisor. In part he said:

"Recent investigations of the County Infirmary have brought out the deplorable conditions existing today in this public institution and if elected my first work will be to clean up these conditions and make the County Infirmary a public home that will be a credit to the county and not a place to be used as a dumping ground for "political servants" in order to gain patronage."

COURT PROCEDURE IS CRITICISED

Noted Educator Is Heard In Address Before Bar Association.

MONTEREY, Aug. 19.—That American law procedure is too fraught with dissertations on points of law to the exclusion of settlement of controversies under consideration in courts was the statement made by Professor Roscoe Pound of Harvard University in an address before delegates to the seventh annual convention of the California Bar Association at Del Monte.

The convention listened to a report of a special committee comprising R. S. Gray, chairman; Percy V. Long, J. P. Loeb, Lewis R. Works and Walter Perry Johnson, the text of which, if adopted by the next legislature, where it will be introduced, will revolutionize court procedure in California.

SISTER SHIPS ON OAKLAND WAYS

Local Yards Given Big Contracts for Two Steam Schooners.

Sister steam schooners, each to cost $112,000, are now under construction at Stone's shipyard, East Oakland. One vessel will be named the Robert Sudden and when completed will be accepted by the Sudden & Christensen Company. The other schooner is to be called the Ryder Hanify and the J. R. Hanify Company will be the owners.

Both ships will be 235 feet long, with a 43-foot beam and 17 feet depth of hold. At the Fulton & Logan shipyard in Los Angeles two vessels of identical description are being constructed for the same two companies. The contract price is the same.

The Robert Sudden will be christened for Captain Sudden, father of Charles Sudden, partner in the shipping firm. The captain was a well-known ship owner of a generation ago and had a large holding of seagoing property on the Pacific coast. He passed away ten years ago.

Favor Traction Charter Change

Progress and Prosperity Men Approve

At the regular meeting of the progress and prosperity committee, held August 18, 1916, the following resolution was unanimously carried:

Resolved, That the progress and prosperity committee, approving of the objects of the citizens' charter amendment committee for improving transportation conditions in the city of Oakland, favors the passage of the proposed amendments to the Oakland city charter regarding granting of franchises to be submitted by initiative petition at the next general election.

MIMIC WARFARE ON ATLANTIC SIDE

Navy in Attack on "Enemy" Forces Near Rhode Island.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 19.—Hasty preparations were being completed by the Atlantic fleet today for the defense of the coast line against an enemy attack tomorrow. Battleships, destroyers, mine layers, submarines and fleet trains are at their posts and set to repel the invasion.

At the first peep of Sunday morning's dawn the Atlantic fleet will attack and attempt to effect a landing with its theoretical army of invasion. It will be the first of this year's war games, worked out by the War College.

"In a class by themselves"

Every One of These New Fall Coats Is Pretty Enough and Fine Enough for a Princess

—There always has been so much talk about the unusually smart styles and the exquisitely, good quality of the New York Store's garments that when we receive something extraordinarily good we want every woman to know about it.

—We don't see how style and quality could be better combined. The materials are those luxurous Bolivias, Broadtails, Broadcloths, Plushes and Wool Velours which speak in a twinkling of Fashion-luxury and which have proven so quality-satisfying.

—Trimmings are of fur—Hudson seal, mole, fox and beaver—or else some new kind of novelty fabric that you have never seen before and that you will fairly love. Linings lean toward the Oriental and have wonderful wear-resisting qualities.

—Wish we could take this whole page to tell you more. It will be better, though, for you to come and see them for yourself.

Full Flaring, Smartly Trimmed Plush Coats! Special $15

New Fall Suits $22.50

We can offer you now without a doubt—the smartest style conceits in the country—the most wanted materials—the predominating colors—the cleverest fur trimmings.

And the prices commencing at $22.50 are further convincing proof that we have the best for less.

Whether you wish to pay $22.50 or $60.00—you will find here considerably more for your money than elsewhere.

Furs--Do You Love Them?

There's an unprecedented demand for Furs this season—all over the country. The styles are distinctly new and smart and we are exceedingly proud that we are able to show many thousand dollar's worth of the latest designs in Cape Collars, Scarfs, Long Throws and New Shape Muffs.

The skins mostly in vogue are Mole and Hudson Seal, trimmed with White Fox or Ermine. Our assortments include besides these favorites: Beaver, Black, White and Pointed Fox, Skunk, Mink, Lynx, etc.

The prices range from Dyed Cooneys at $6.00 to Mink Sets at $250.00.

ISLE CITY SEEKS NEW INDUSTRIES

Improvement of Tide Lands Is Suggested as Measure to Pave Way for Waterfront and Inducement to Commerce

No Definite Plan Agreed to, but Men of Improvement Club See Prospect of Possible Leases and Make Survey

ALAMEDA, Aug. 19.—A plan which may result in the reclamation and improvement of 2000 acres of tidelands adjoining the Alameda mole, is being formulated by the industrial committee of the Alameda Improvement Club. The plans are not yet ready for announcement but Chairman George A. Hagy, when apprised that the report was current on the street, reluctantly consented to make a short statement. Hagy said:

"We are not in a position to make any announcement and I am both surprised and annoyed that the report has become current. The matter so far consists of a half-formed plan, or rather the nursing of an idea, by the industrial committee of the Alameda Improvement Club. No announcement has yet been made to the club for the industrial committee felt it had to feel its way further before there would be any use in making a statement either before club or public.

VAST ACREAGE.

"There are about 2000 acres of tidelands to the southward of Alameda pier and the committee felt it would be a splendid thing for Alameda if some big scheme of reclamation and improvement could be evolved. The committee planned to await the outcome of the Oakland election on the F. M. Smith improvement proposal and if this was carried, the committee felt it might have something tangible to take up with F. M. Smith in regard to the Alameda tidelands. The proposition is not in competition with the Oakland proposal. The tidelands are not even in present condition to be so improved if the promoters of such an undertaking were ready to proceed, for the tidelands are not yet under the jurisdiction of the city of Alameda. I want to emphasize that this statement is not in the line of an announcement of something we are ready to proceed with, but is an explanation of what may evolve in the future if different controlling factors work out right."

WORKED FOR ENTERPRISE.

The members of the industrial committee of the Alameda Improvement Club are George A. Hagy, chairman, Dr. H. A. Miller and H. G. Mehrtens. The industrial committee worked sturdily for the success of the Union Iron Works and is closely watching for opportunities to attract further industrial enterprises to Alameda. The tidelands mentioned border the main bay. They are regarded at present as state tidelands though there are probably still private claimants to be reckoned with. The F. M. Smith borax mill property in West Alameda has no connection with the tidelands' project discussed by Hagy.

Skeleton Adds Gray Hair to Mayor's Pate

BERKELEY, Aug. 19. — Mayor Samuel C. Irving has six more gray hairs today. He admits it. And coming across a coffin, containing a grisly skeleton, in a dark cellar, is enough to grow a whole flock of them. He admits that, too.

Mayor Irving was looking over a vacant building at 228 Fremont street, San Francisco, when he happened across the grim find. He fled. Then he bethought him and called the Soko Transfer company, lessees of the building, and in faltering accents, told them of his discovery.

"Oh, that's all right," was the answer. "It's a wooden theatrical prop skeleton—nothing to get excited about. It's not a regular skeleton, at all."

But the mayor took some time to get over the shock.

Mare Island Man Fatally Injured

VALLEJO, Aug. 19. — N. P. Gibbons of Mare Island was fatally injured last night when the machine in which he was riding on the Napa road, plunged over an embankment. Gibbons was thrown clear of the car, his head striking a railroad track. His scalp was practically torn from his head and his left arm was broken in three places. He is dying at the Vallejo general hospital.

The blowing up of a tire caused the accident. Charles Mills of San Francisco was driving the machine in which Gibbons and his wife were riding. Mrs. Gibbons and Mills were not thrown from the car and escaped with bruises and shock. Gibbons is about 67 years of age.

Check Machine and Clothes Form Loot

A burglar who entered the store of Grove V. Arth, 1954 Telegraph avenue, last night, stole a check-writing machine. The theft was reported to the police today.

M. H. Shaw, 543 Hobart street, told the police today that a thief had entered his place and helped himself to his favorite neck ties, silk hose, handkerchiefs and a suit of clothes.

U. C. CO-ED IS HONORED WILL MANAGE MASQUE

MISS DOROTHY WETMORE, named manager of 1917 Partheneia at University of California.

Girl Student Who Received Praise in College Dramatics to Direct "Partheneia"

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—The 1917 Partheneia committee has announced the appointment of Dorothy Wetmore as manager of the Women's Masque at the University of California. Miss Wetmore has been prominent in University dramatic life since her freshman year. She has always been an interested worker in the Partheneia productions either as a participant or as a member of the various committees.

Miss Wetmore was in the cast of the 1916 Junior Curtain Raiser "Caught in the Act," and in "Prunella," the 1915 English Club production.

With a view to making next year's production the greatest in the history of the pageant, Miss Wetmore is choosing with great care her staff of assistants. These appointments will be announced late next week.

The Partheneia is the principal women's activity of the college year, and the honor of being appointed manager is one much coveted by the undergraduates.

The production of the pageant is the work of the women of the university exclusively. It is written by women. The costumes are designed by women, the groups are rehearsed by women and from first to last only women have charge of the production.

Miss Wetmore is a Phi Beta Kappa and arrangements are being made for a reception in her honor at the sorority house.

Mothers' Club to Ask School Ground

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—A petition asking the board of education to purchase property adjoining the Longfellow school in Ward street to relieve the congested condition of the school, is being drawn up by the Mothers' Club of the school.

"At present there are no buildings on the land," said Mrs. F. T. Herrick, president of the club today, "and the mothers think it advisable to acquire the property before any construction is commenced. The school is in badly crowded condition and classes are held in the hall. At present there are 891 pupils in the six grades."

A crowded condition exists in several of the grammar schools of the city it is said, notably in the Jefferson school, where it is feared that the pupils will have to be placed on a half-time schedule.

The building of intermediate schools would, it was thought, relieve this condition, but the lower grades are growing so fast that it is thought that only by building additional grammar schools can pace be kept with the growing population.

Annexation Asked for "No Man's Land"

BERKELEY, Aug. 19. — Albany, Berkeley's little sister on the northwest, has ambitions to become a bigger city. The ambitions were stirred recently when Berkeley announced a campaign for 100,000 population, it is said.

Albany would annex "No Man's Land," a little strip of territory lying neither in Berkeley nor in Albany and owing allegiance to neither. A petition circulated in this territory is said to have received the signatures of all but two of the residents and property owners. These two prefer the name Berkeley to Albany and waive the advantage of lower taxes for the luster of the name.

The campaign of the Northbrae Improvement club for the annexation of Thousand Oaks, Cragmont, North Cragmont and No Man's Land to the city of Berkeley, which was started off auspiciously at a mass meeting held in the Oxford school last week, is progressing favorably according to members of the club and no opposition to the move has been evidenced by the residents of the territory.

Woodmen to Hold Night of Athletics

ALAMEDA, Aug. 19. — Spruce camp, Woodmen of the World, will hold an athletic night, next Friday evening, in Woodmen hall on Park street. The affair has been planned by the entertainment committee, headed by G. W. Jenkins and composed of Jenkins, J. D. Rhoades, J. R. Roche, Henry Winkler and W. T. Locke. The program of events will be carried out under the direction of Otto Rittler, physical culture instructor in the Alameda schools.

Spruce camp is also organizing a new drill team and practice drills are already under way. The booster committee of the lodge will hold a special meeting next Thursday night to discuss further booster plans and to complete any unfinished details for the athletic evening on the night following.

CHURCH PICNIC.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 19. — The Christ church Sunday school held its annual picnic at Trestle Glen, Oakland, today. The picnickers made the trip to and from the picnic grounds in special street cars by way of Park street and East Oakland.

McDowell Club in Alameda Is Busy

ALAMEDA, Aug. 19. — The J. Sherman McDowell Assembly club of Alameda is conducting a campaign in behalf of its candidate for member of the State legislature. The entire 35th district has been canvassed by the members of the club, and as a result the rolls of the organization have grown to large proportions.

William A. Knapp is president of the Assembly club, and E. R. Allen, secretary. Weekly meetings have been held at which details of the campaign have been gone over.

In urging support for McDowell, the club is contending that he is a business man, a civic worker, and is thoroughly conversant with the needs of his district. The club urges that its candidate, in his connection with various civic enterprises, has accomplished much for the district and if sent to Sacramento will be enabled to present legislation that will mean for the upbuilding of not only his own section but the entire Alameda county. That McDowell is a consistent Republican is also offered by the club as a reason for support at the polls.

Fails to Identify Bunko Suspect

BERKELEY, Aug. 19. — Alfred de Gracia, who was brought to Berkeley from Reno to answer a charge of larceny by trick and device, was discharged when the victim, Pete Zori, failed positively to identify him.

Dr. Gracia was accused of having taken $3000 from Zori, on the University of California campus by a time worn bunco trick. Zori picked out De Gracia's picture in the Berkeley rogues' gallery, but when brought face to face with the prisoner he could not be sure.

De Gracia is a powerfully built man, standing 6 feet 2 inches in height. When Zori confronted him De Gracia told him to be sure and the way he said it may have had something to do with Zori's decision.

Yachts to Race for Jones Cup

ALAMEDA, Aug. 19. — The Aeolian yachts will race tomorrow for the Jones trophy, a silver cup hung up by former Commodore George Jones. This cup has to be won by owner and not by yacht. The Speedwell, under former ownership, took the trophy twice and the Zephyr once. The Speedwell has not captured the trophy since becoming the property of Commodore Carl Strom.

Tomorrow's race will be the fourth race of the present season. The previous affairs were for the Aeolian cup, the Times-Star cup, and a special trophy of a ship's clock won on points. The clock is now the property of Commodore Strom whose score of 30 points is more than double the score of any of the competing yachts. The final clock score will not be determined until the end of the season.

High School Boys to Draw Bungalows

ALAMEDA, Aug. 19. — Embryo architects in the Alameda high school are to have opportunity to draw bungalow plans in active competition with graduate architects. Dr. C. P. Pond, who is building a new bungalow colony in East Alameda, has offered prizes to the high school students for the best bungalow designs and plans.

A prize will be given for every plan accepted and a special prize for the best design among the accepted group of drawings. At the high school exhibit at the close of last term, one of the interesting exhibits comprised a working bungalow model, together with the plans and specifications, the whole being the work of a high school boy.

BROCKLEHURST IS GAINING SUPPORT

Candidate for Assembly to Give Backing to Half-Fare Campaign.

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—The stand that N. Bruce Brocklehurst has taken in favoring the half-fare for school children fight in Berkeley has brought to his support many women who are favoring his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the assembly from the Forty-first district.

Brocklehurst said at one of the many meetings attended by women:

The privilege of half fares for school children is one which makes for better educational systems. I am sure that the buisness district is not the place for students. There are attractions down town which divert their attention from their work and their clean play in the school. These do not exist in the outlying sections. There are other conditions which make the issuance of the half-fare privilege to school children imperative. If it cannot be secured otherwise, it may be secured by state legislation and I would be proud to father such legislation.

Brocklehurst addressed a meeting of the Elmwood Park Republican Club Wednesday and was accorded an ovation by those present.

DESERTERS CAPTURED.

PRESIDIO, Texas, Aug. 19.—Two recruits who deserted from L troop of the Sixth cavalry were brought here today from Russell's ranch, about twenty-five miles distant. They had stolen, it was charged, $35 and the pay check of their troop commander, Captain Heintzelman, but they had mailed the pay check back to the captain.

BERKELEY AWARDS PAVING CONTRACTS

Improvements of University to Divert Travel Through Business Section.

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—Contracts to the amount of $80,000 were let today by the city council. The contract of principal importance to the city was that for the paving of University avenue from Grove to Third streets. This contract was awarded to the Oakland Paving Company at a price which will cost the property owners approximately $4.50 per front foot.

According to City Engineer J. J. Jessup this price is 26% lower than normal prices.

The paving of University avenue will in the opinion of Berkeley business men divert considerable travel from San Pablo avenue and bring tourists and others driving to Oakland and San Francisco from Contra Costa county and the east through the business center of the city. Heretofore this was not done on account of the poor condition of the streets.

The contracts were let for sewering Hopkins street and Shattuck avenue. The condition existing in Hopkins street has caused much concern. The existing sewer of the 6-inch type and from Northbrae there enters into it a 12-inch sewer, making an impossible condition. In the winter time the six-inch sewer attempting to carry sewage from the one double its size overflows and becomes a menace to public health.

The building of the corporation yard will begin immediately at a cost of $10,075.

Youthful Prodigy Registers at U.C.

14-Year-Old Boy Invades Campus

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—A boy college phonomenon has now invaded the western university ranks and the fame of Harvard as a center of boy wonders is waning. Registration at the University of California has brought to light the fact that Theodore Steinmann of San Diego is but 14 years of age and is a full-fledged student taking up a pre-medical course.

Steinmann is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Steinmann of San Diego and graduated from the San Diego Army and Navy academy when 13 years old. Unlike most boy wonders in the education world, Steinmann does not wear glasses and his head is perfectly normal. He looks like, talks like and from every outward appearance is just like the average 14-year-old boy. However—

He is entering college at the age of 14 and will have received a degree at the age of 18 and if he continues with medicine will be a practicing physician at the age of 21, the time when the average college student is a junior.

READY TO WELCOME BOOTH IN BERKELEY

Many Will Greet Republican Candidate for U. S. Senatorship.

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—Preparations are complete for the mass meeting of welcome for Willis H. Booth, candidate for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate. Booth will arrive at the Southern Pacific station, Shattuck avenue, at 7:40 o'clock tonight. He will be met by a brass band and a committee of representative citizens headed by Mayor Samuel C. Irving and former Lieutenant-Governor John S. Partridge.

In the candidate's party will be Mrs. Abbie Krebs and Samuel Shortridge, who will speak at the mass meeting at the high school auditorium.

More than four hundred vice-presidents will occupy the stage of the auditorium in honor of the candidate.

Among them will be Walter A. Gompertz, H. S. Howard, John S. Partridge, Charles D. Heyward, Henry W. Taylor, Lester W. Hink, Phillip M. Carey, Walter H. Radcliffe Jr., Alfred H. The CONFESSIONS of ROXANE

By FRANCES WALTER.

I drew a chair up beside the sofa and sat down to watch over my attendant said Miss Thompson with a wan smile.

It was not long before I recovered the strength which had left me as a result of my exertion. As soon as I felt better I began to wonder how seriously Miss Thompson had been injured. The possibility of my being deprived of my attendant and only companion did not occur to me. I am glad that it did not, for it would have given me another trouble to brood over. It would not have been a very pleasant thing for me to contemplate—this being alone with unpleasant thoughts. I do not think that my failure to suspect that she would return was due to any unselfishness on my part. I just seemed to take it for granted that she would be back in a short time, and that is precisely what happened.

It was about two hours after her collision with the bellboy that she limped into the room on the arm of the woman who lived across the corridor. Miss Thompson had not been greatly injured by her experience, but the nervous shock had had a very telling effect upon her. There was no doubt that her long confinement in my bedroom and her persistent refusal to take any outdoor exercise had rendered her more susceptible to a collapse of this sort than if she had followed my advice and been in the open air more.

The good-hearted woman who was with her assisted her to a couch.

"I think she will be all right in a few minutes. That clumsy boy ought to be discharged. He might have killed her."

Miss Thompson protested weakly.

"It was as much my fault as his," she said. "I should have been looking about me."

"Well, I suppose all full-blooded boys are the same, but it does seem to me there ought to be some way to prevent them from running over people."

"Please do not make any complaint to the manager about the boy," urged Miss Thompson. "He was really no more to blame than I, and besides he might have some one dependent upon him for support."

"Well, I shan't report him, but I shan't tip him again for a week," said our visitor with some asperity. "That will be the greatest punishment that I could inflict upon him. And I shall take pains to let him know that the reason I am not tipping him is because he is careless. Perhaps the lesson will do him good."

"It will certainly be a painful lesson," said Miss Thompson with a wan smile.

"Indeed it will."

The good woman chuckled and after expressing the hope that both my nurse and I would soon feel better, she left.

Miss Thompson and I did not speak for a few moments. She was evidently still greatly shaken, and I found myself sympathizing very deeply with her. A short time before I had cordially detested her and had resolved to circumvent her carefully laid plans, but at that time she seemed to be my enemy. Now she looked so careworn and ill that I could not but feel sorry for her.

I urged her to lie on the couch until she was better, assuring her that I needed nothing and was feeling exceptionally well. She was so weak that she did not protest, but complied readily with my suggestion. Soon she was overcome by a reaction from her exciting experience and dozed.

I felt so much better that I got out of bed and put on the dressing gown which I had hastily hung in the armoir. I drew a chair up beside the sofa and sat down to watch over my attendant.

She was a delicately built little woman, about 35 years old. I wondered as I looked at her how she was able to bear the hardships which a nurse must endure. Her face was thin and faintly marked with blue veins about the temples and forehead, and her neck and arms were almost as frail as mine. Could this woman be the hard-hearted jailer that I had imagined her to be? The very idea was absurd. I found myself once more compelled to alter my previously formed opinion.

But if Miss Thompson was not a guard who had been placed over me, why was she there at all? Was she there solely in the capacity of a nurse, and, if so, who had sent her? I did not believe for one moment that Arthur had employed her, although she had been very assiduous to attempting to foist those bogus telegrams upon my credulity. I could not imagine any one who would have employed her to attend me. The fact of Mr. Gordon or Mariam taking that much interest in me did not come to me at all. In fact, I had but a hazy recollection of either of those recently made friends. I seemed to take it for granted that both of them had passed out of my life as suddenly as they had entered it.

CATHOLIC AID WORKERS CONVENE

First Conference of Social and Charitable Societies Held in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The first conference of Catholic social and charitable workers ever held, opened here today.

Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon, Bishop of Rockford, Ill., chairman of the social service commission of the American Federation of Catholic societies; Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, of Washington, president of the Catholic charity conference of the United States; Sir Joseph Frey, K. S. G., president of the German Catholic Central Verein and John Paul Chew, president of the Catholic Press Association of the United States, called the conference.

This conference preceded the fifteenth annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies, which starts here tomorrow and continues until Aug. 23. The week is known as "Catholic Week in New York."

Twenty thousand Catholics were expected to attend from all parts of the United States. Fifteen hundred delegates will attend, representing three million members and, indirectly, 13 million other Catholics in the United States.

The speakers for tomorrow include Cardinal O'Connell, Bishop James A. McFaul of Trenton, Governor Whitman of New York and John Whalen, national president of the organization. The business sessions of the convention will consider divorce, social reform, censorship of moving pictures, the Catholic theater movement and other reforms.

Rev. Philip Gordon of Winnebago, Neb., one of the two Indian Catholic priests in the United States, will represent the Catholic Indian Bureau.

Auto Overturns; Five Men Are Injured

SAN JOSE, Aug. 19.—Five men are injured, three of them seriously, as the result of an accident in which an automobile in which they were riding turned a complete somersault on the Monterey road, two and one-half miles south of this city.

The accident was caused by the chauffeur trying to make a quick turn to dodge a vegetable wagon that carried no lights.

The car was driven by Vincent Napoli. The other occupants of the car were Louis Lavoie, J. Lewis, Tony Shafter and William Winslow.

Winslow received serious internal injuries. Lavoie and Lewis were taken to the county hospital. They have concussion of the brain and it is possible their skulls are fractured.

Shafer and Napoli were badly bruised, but it is thought their injuries are not serious.

Battleships Texas and Virginia High

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Figures submitted by Secretary Daniels to the Senate on battleship practice of the Atlantic fleet for 1915-16, in response to a resolution of inquiry, show that the battleship Virginia had the highest rating in individual practice with a percentage of 71.55, while the Texas with a percentage of 73.56 had the highest rating in division practice.

In individual practice the three next highest were the Nebraska, 63.89; Michogan, 63.89, and Texas, 51.67. In division practice the Utah had a percentage of 44.07; Delaware, 38.41; South Carolina, 34.28.

Secretary Daniels reported that it was not compatible with public interest to publish the various elements from which these figures of merit were calculated.

Child Indicted for Murder of Mother

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 19.—Wallie Zimmerman, 12 years old, today was indicted by the grand jury, charged with first degree murder for shooting and killing his mother here last July. Court officials said the boy was the youngest person ever indicted for murder in Louisiana. The district attorney stated that if he is convicted he might be sentenced to the penitentiary or hanged.

Oregon Homesteader Slays Homebreaker

BAKER, Or., Aug. 19.—J. A. Allen, a homesteader, shot and killed Lewis Butts at the Allen home on Rock creek, near Bridgeport, Oregon, this afternoon. He then gave himself up and is now in the Baker county jail here. Allen told the officers he had gone hunting and on his return home found Butts with Mrs. Allen.

Rev. H. E. Hays to Preach Tomorrow

At the Centennial Presbyterian Church on Twenty-fourth avenue and Foothill boulevard tomorrow morning there will be a welcome back to the pastor, Rev. H. E. Hays. Mr. Hays has recovered from a serious illness which confined him to a hospital the past six weeks.

CARFARE MAY BE BOOSTED BY WAR

Cost of Materials Since War Causes Plea for Jump.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 19.—The possibility of higher street car and interurban fares for every city in the country as a result of the increased cost of materials used in traction operations was not scoffed at by officials of the local lines when they declared today that their operating expenses have gone up from 12 to 300 percent in the last five years. The increased car fares would affect every street car and interurban system in the country, as all of them have experienced the same higher cost of doing business.

The company cited twelve American cities where increased fares have been demanded in the last two years. Toledo went back to the straight five-cent fare from the three-cent fare so long fought for. Cleveland restored the one-cent charge for transfers. Several six-cent city fares in Massachusetts towns were cited. A Massachusetts interurban company also was granted an increase.

Commerce Members to Hear of City's Future

The annual banquet of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce will be held in the Palm court of the Palace Hotel August 28.

The subject of the evening will be "San Francisco's Industrial Future." Frederick J. Koster, president of the chamber, will preside and will call upon the following to respond: Robert Newton Lynch, Benjamin Ide Wheeler and William Sproule.

THREE INDICTED.

NAPA, Aug. 19.—The grand jury of Napa county has returned indictments against Roy Ledeux, Harry F. McKee and Edward Fisher, charging each with burglary. They are accused of robbing the R. and R. saloon in this city in December, 1915.

Laborer Said to Be Leprosy Sufferer

SEATTLE, Aug. 19.—An ailment of Andrew Alex, a laborer who recently arrived in Seattle from Bellingham, was definitely determined to be leprosy by Dr. B. J. Lloyd, surgeon in charge of the United States public health service, today. The man will be cared for at the city isolation hospital until decision is reached as to whether the state or federal government must provide for him. Dr. Lloyd said the man must have been infected for a year or two.

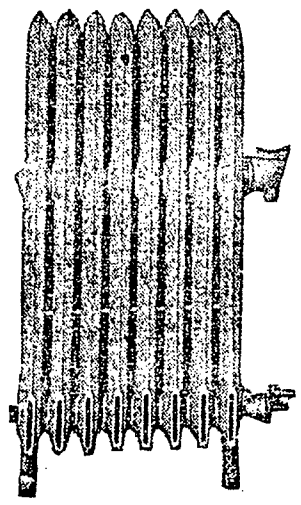
Keeps the House Comfortable All Day and All Night

The Modern Gas Systems of Heating and Ventilating is the last word in heating perfection.
You know what it means to get up out of a nice warm bed, in the winter, in a room that is cold. You've had the windows open the night before. Not a warm spot in the house. Someone has to get up and fire the boiler or feed the furnace, so the family can dress in comfort.
Do away with this morning discomfort. Have warm rooms to dress, shave and breakfast in. Do away with rooms that are alternately too hot or too cold.


The Modern Gas System furnishes just the heat you want when and where you want it. All YOU have to do is to PUSH THE BUTTON!
No Odors or Fumes
"Heating De Luxe," sent free, tells you how to make your home warm and cozy throughout the year. Protect your family from drafts and ensuing illness. Save fuel. Write for this booklet now.

OAKS' OFFENSIVE ON WESTERN FRONT STILL UNABATED

Within Ten Games Now of Getting Out of Cellar at Beavers' Expense.

The extraordinary offensive being waged by the Oaks on the Western front continues unabated. The Seals, under General Wolverton, were driven from their last line of defenses yesterday and are now in precipitous retreat. By taking the fourth straight game from San Francisco the Oaks crept up to within ten games of the Beavers, who are in fifth place. There seems serious danger that the Oaks will lose their snug quarters in the cellar after all.

Bill Prough was the demon hurler who piloted the Oaks into the harbor of victory. Prough allowed but four hits, two of them being home runs by Biff Schaller, accounting for the only Seal runs. The Oaks, on the other hand, fell upon Erickson and treated him to a merry bombardment.

Billy Lane scored from second in the first inning when Jones made a low throw to Autrey following Barbeau's easy grounder. In the third Vann walked, advanced on a sacrifice and scored on Berger's swat to center. Erickson cut off the throw from Calvo, though it looked as though the runner was due to be nipped.

Kenworthy and Lane singled in the fourth, and "Kopecs" was shoved over with a sacrifice and a squeeze play. Kenworthy's double in the fifth scored Berger.

Barbeau's double, Vann's infield out and Prough's single accounted for the fifth Oakland run. The score:

Reading the Green

Heavist Quinn of Vernon was about the wildest thing this side of Borneo when they hurled him into the breach against the Saints.

Quinn make two beautiful wild pitches in a short space of time. Salt Lake won 9 to 5.

Piercy fanned five, but walked six trying to heave strikeout ball.

The Saints' offensive was at its strongest in the fourth and fifth frames, when eight hits netted five runs.

Dick Bayless had a slipshod day. He bobbled twice.

Biff Schaller of San Francisco got two home runs against Oakland, but "single-handed and alone" he couldn't win.

The Oaks outnumbered him and made it four straight, 5 to 2.

The Angels played an exhibition game for the benefit of an appreciative crowd, and it was rumored there was another team on the field also.

One report said this other team was from Portland, but this is not verified. Anyway, score 8 to 1, and the visitors got three hits.

Yesterday's big league hero was Pitcher Ayers, hurling for Washington, who not only held Detroit safe, but delivered the hit which sent the winning run across.

The White Sox got into the American League race when they defeated Boston, while Cleveland was losing and went into second place.

Two kid pitchers, Lambeth of Cleveland and Shocker of New York, opposed each other at the Polo Grounds in a 13-inning duel which was won by New York.

Charley Mullen again stepped into the limelight by delivering the thirteenth inning hit that sent victory across the plate.

Speaker and Pipp each hit a home run into the right field stands. The Cardinals pushed the Braves back when Snyder singled in the tenth inning and hit in the winning run.

Pol Perritt broke the Giants' losing streak with a victory over the Cubs, but the New Yorkers faltered in the second game.

It was Benny Kauff's double that gave the Giants their lead.

BOWLING

In the Bowling Tourney being held on Herold's Ninth street alleys last night, in the 8 p. m. set, Kosht's team won three straight from Creagh's team. Koshi made the highest single score of the tourney to date of 249 pins an average for the series of 209 2-3.

Nos of Creagh's team was high with 174 2-3 average.

In the 9:30 set, Tabler's team won three straight from Donohue's team. Bush was high for Tabler's team with a 207 game an average of 185 2-3. Donohue for his team made the nice score of 226 an average of 195 1-3. Scores:

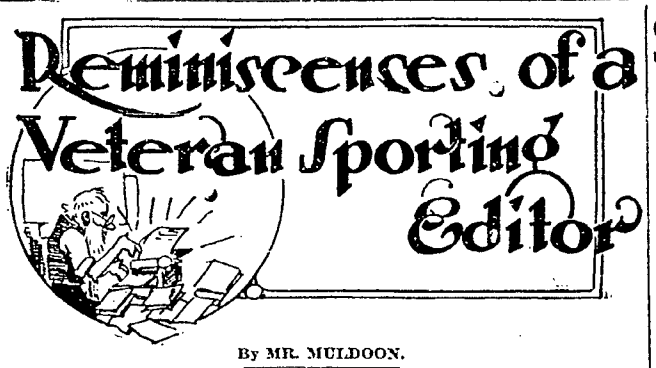
Reminiscences of a Veteran Sporting Editor



By MR. MULDOON.

Just think it over: Twenty years since the famous Baltimore club was winning National League and world championships.

And yet some of the old boys who made Baltimore and baseball famous are just as much talked of and written about today as when in their prime.

Famous though many of them have become in later years, there is none of them who does not feel to this day that the pass word to highest admiration is found in the words: "I was one of the old Orioles."

Three of the old Baltimore team are as much in the limelight today as they were twenty years ago.

I refer, of course, to Wilbert Robinson, the Orioles' famous catcher, who is now managing the Brooklyn team that is in the lead in the National League race; to John J. McGraw, the old third baseman of the famous Orioles and now known far and near as the manager of the New York Giants, and to Hughie Jennings, the old Oriole shortstop, now manager of the Detroit Tigers.

Robinson, McGraw and Jennings are prouder of having been in the "Big Four" than of their connection with the best known teams of the present decade.

The lesser lights, McMahon, Fond, Esper, Wemming, Bill Clarke, Brouthers, Doyle, Reitz, Brodie and Manlof, are glad enough to be held in estimation for whatever glory may come reflected from the "old Orioles," whatever they may have individually earned.

As the Brooklyn manager referred to the Orioles the other day:

"It was a great old team.

"The greatest. I honestly believe, and the best that will ever be seen.

"To the Orioles was given the rare distinction of being originators, and to them belongs the credit of laying the foundation and getting well under way the superstructure of modern baseball."

As Robinson well said, the old Baltimore team was the acme of invention of aggressiveness and of mechanical skill.

Of what team can that be said before or since?

That collection of individual players on the Oriole team was the brainiest in the history of the game, and that goes without saying.

It was they who originated or put into practical use as recognized plays the bunt hit, which later developed into the sacrifice; the hit and run; the "chop" hit"; fouling off balls in order to "work a pass"; getting hit by the pitcher for the same purpose, and the half-arm push hit just over the infielders' heads.

In a word, the Orioles introduced modern scientific baseball and revolutionized the old haphazard slap-bang style into an art.

Take the bunt for instance.

It may have been seen occasionally somewhere before, but if so it made no lasting impression.

The first men to realize its practical value were Keeler and McGraw.

Both were fast runners.

Dumping a ball was an astounding thing to ball players in those days.

Unprepared as third and first basemen were for a thing like that, before they could handle the ball fleet Keeler and McGraw were across the bag "kidding" the other fellows.

When the enemy did wake up finally and tried to prevent the play, the Orioles would either beat out the throw by their speed or push the ball over the third or first baseman's head with that aggravating half arm "push."

In either case the result was generally "the laugh" by the Orioles at the opponents' expense.

In later years, when all teams began to learn to checkmate the bunt hit to a great extent, the Orioles used it as a sacrifice, but the sacrifice was never in great favor.

With them the end in view was run getting at the least cost.

Small wonder then that from this team came McGraw, Jennings and Robinson, who twenty years later are still leading all in the baseball line and show the way to even their far younger and more active brethren.

LEONARD OUTBOXES JOE AZEVEDO

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Benny Leonard of New York outfought Joe Azevedo of California in every round of a 10-round bout here last night. In the first, second and third rounds Leonard was careful, feeling out his opponent, but thereafter he hit the Californian at will. Azevedo rushed throughout the fight but could not reach his skillful opponent.

SWIMMING BENEFIT MEET AT PIEDMONT THRILLS AUDIENCE

Olympic Club Splashers Carry Off Honors in Majority of Events.

The cream of Northern California swimming talent displayed its excellence at the Piedmont Baths last night in an exhibition meet staged to help send the Piedmont Swimming team to San Diego for Far-Western Swimming Championship races on Labor Day, September 4. As per custom, the Olympic Club of San Francisco carried off the lion's share of places, Sandy Goodman, coast champion for fifty yards, Lino Johnson and Ernie Smith making up a reliable trio of point-getters.

Goodman won easily in his short distance event, while Smith showed plenty of form in the century and won in a tight race. Booth, Olympic Club, was a good second. Johnson captured the 150-yard backstroke event, while Ernie Smith came through again by capturing first place in the 220-yard free style swim. The 500-yard event went to Spencer of Piedmont, finishing a lap and a half ahead of L. Smith, Lick High entrant.

The feature event of the night was the relay race for high school boys. Berkeley and Alameda Highs fought it out tooth to nail from start to finish, the college town quintet finally capturing the honors.

Miss Frances Cowells, Pacific Coast champion for fifty yards, failed to set a new record for the 100-yard event. She swam the distance in 1:12 3-5 seconds, which is a record only for the Piedmont tank. The national record is held by Miss Olga Dorfner, the Philadelphia marvel. Miss Dorfner set the new mark at Sutro Baths on July 4. Miss Cowells bettered her own previous mark, however, for this event. This should give her some encouragement. Her former mark was 1:16. Miss Helen Joynor, a team mate of Miss Cowells, swam in the same event.

The meet was staged under Herbert Hauser, secretary of the P. A. A., and other Pacific Athletic Association officials. William Coffman of the Sutro Baths was starter. Hauser, W. A. Seawright and Otto Rittler, judges of finish, and Bill L'Heureux, announcer. The meet was a financial success, a big crowd turning out to see the galaxy of "water dogs."

The summary:

100-yard dash, won by E. Smith, O. C.; Booth, O. C., second; Chichester, P., third. Time, 59 min. 2 sec.

150-yard back stroke, won by Lino Johnson, O. C.; Jensen, O. C., second; Sundman, P., third. Time, 1:16.

500 yards, won by Spencer, P.; second, L. Smith, Lick; third, Holtz, O. C. Time, 6 min. 53 3-5 sec.

50 yards, won by Goodman, O. C.; second, Steiger, O. C.; third, Daly, S. B. Time, 26 sec. flat.

220-yard free style, won by E. Smith, O. C.; second, Spencer, P., Cole, unattached. Time, 2:32.

100-yard back stroke, won by Sundman, P.; second, Hart, P.; third, Shaw, O. C.

High School relay, won by Berkeley High (Maybeck, Eckley, Horstman, Peterson); Alameda, second, and High School of Commerce, third. Time, 59 2-5 sec.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

SATURDAY COMMERCIAL LEAGUE.

Today starts the seventh week in the Saturday League, which is composed of four teams representing business concerns in the bay cities.

The Great Western Power club, long organized as a traveling team and composed principally of employees of the big hydro-electric company, forged ahead in the percentage column by taking six straight games.

The three others team that are trying to set back the power company are the Chamber of Commerce, which is managed by the old Columbia coach, Frank De Lisle, and played formerly under the colors of the Commercial Club; the Del Monte Canners, under the guidance of Guy Kues, formerly a shining light in fast semi-pro circles, and Lee Bertillion's Hatters. The latter will be the leaders' opponents today at Bushrod.

Monte Pfyl was out of the power line-up Saturday. Pfyl is using Carl Ely at first in the Saturday games, playing second himself, with Al Hiester at short and Paul Codington at third.

France Weber, one of the most popular young players seen on the public playgrounds, is taking a much needed vacation in the wilds of Plumas county. Weber writes he is having the time of his life. Slim Nelson took up his job at pitching Saturday and did the comeback in great shape.

Moke Meyers is out of the Bertillons' lineup and has been succeeded by Park Wilson, Jr. The new shorstopper more than made the fans forget the Pittsburg infielder by his four-base poke and his grab of Paulino's drive with the danger signal waving. Bertillion made a master stroke when he put the star to selling bonnets on Broadway.

Bill Reab is going great these days. The old Nevada Bank player looks awful good in that Commercial uniform. De Lisle has a likely lad in Reab. Other players who are going well on the Chamber of Commerce team are Tonkin and Elder. These two are batting in the .400 class.

The Del Monte Canners, who put up a strong defense against the power company Saturday, will play the Chamber of Commerce today at Bayview. The game will start at 3 p. m. Croll is playing second, the position Friend Woodward says he was made for, and has Speed Burnett, the old Boyle Lawlor favorite, in the short patch.

13 SHUTOUTS FOR ALEXANDER

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Grover Cleveland Alexander holds a new National League record today. By shutting out the Reds yesterday the premier hurler for the Phillies hung up his thirteenth shutout victory for this season and established a new record for the league in shutout games for a single season. Alexander allowed seven hits, but his control was almost perfect. He did not give a base on balls, nor did he hit a man.

The previous best record for shutout games in the National, according to all available records at league headquarters, was twelve, held jointly by Alexander and Christy Mathewson. Alexander equaled Mathewson's stunt last season when he pitched his team to victory twelve times without allowing a run. Mathewson pitched his way to twelve whitewash wins in 1908.

Records showing shutout games for seasons do not go back farther than 1901, but it is probable Alexander and Mathewson hold the record until yesterday, for prior to the birth of the American League shutout games were rare.

A. A. U. TITLE BOXING BOUTS BRING THRILLS

Monte Wolgast, Olympic Boxer, Lands Kayo on Portland Crack.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 19.—Monte Wolgast of the Olympic Club scored the only knockout in the opening session of the A. A. U. boxing championships here last night. Wolgast put a crusher on Tom Loutill of the Multnomah Club. The best exhibition of the evening was between Ray Harper of Seattle and Charles Eagen of Salt Lake, who fought three rounds to a draw, and two more at the order of the judges, before Harper took the decision. Summary:

Allen Bruce, Los Angeles A. C., defeated Ralph Underwood, Multnomah A. C., Portland, in three rounds; decision; 115-pound class.

James Woodward, Los Angeles A. C., defeated Walter Schiller, Olympic Club, San Francisco, three rounds; decision; 125-pound class.

Earl Baird, Seattle A. C., defeated Anthony Sisto, Los Angeles Newsboys' Club, three rounds; decision; 125-pound class.

Ray Harper, Seattle A. C., defeated Charles Egan, Salt Lake City, five rounds; decision; 108-pound class.

Eddie Ryan, Los Angeles Newsboys' Club, defeated Eddie Hughes, Salt Lake City, three rounds; 115-pound class.

Monte Wolgast, Olympic Club, San Francisco, knocked out Tom Loutit, Multnomah A. C., Portland, second round; 175-pound class.

James Gleason, Olympic Club, San Francisco, defeated Earl Baird, Seattle A. C., three rounds; 135-pound class.

Eddie Ryan, Los Angeles Newsboys' Club, defeated Danny Wardell of the same club, in two rounds. Referee Blake stopped the bout in the second round to avoid a certain knockout; 115-pound class.

BRIEF IS LIKELY TO TOP PING BODIE'S HOME RUN RECORD

Has Twenty-two Four-Base Hits and Still Two Months to Go.

When Brief of Salt Lake drove out his twenty-second home run of the 1916 Coast League season on August 16, he made it extremely probable that he will pass Ping Bodie's record of 30 home runs which now stands as the Coast League record. For the season still had ten and a half weeks to go when Brief made that twenty-second home run.

But Brief did more than make Ping Bodie worry about his laurels. Brief added one more argument to the theory that the pitchers who are found for the most home runs are the least efficient in holding down the batting average of all other safe hits. Thus up to the beginning of the twentieth week of the season, Hughes of Salt Lake, Sothoron of Portland, and Klawitter of Oakland and Salt Lake had each been touched for ten home runs, more than any other pitchers in the league. Sothoron has held his opponents to a .254 batting average, but Hughes has been hit at a .279 rate while Klawitter has seen the fielders chasing safe drives behind him at a .288 clip.

Houck of Portland and Couch and Baum of San Francisco came next in line, each having been found for seven four-cushion shots. Steen of San Francisco, Piercey of Salt Lake, and Prough of Oakland had each been hit for six home runs. Kelly and Noyes of Portland with five each were the only other pitchers who had been charged with five circuit shots.

Counting the two home runs made in the first two games of the Vernon-Salt Lake series, Brief of Salt Lake had made three home runs each off Vernon and Los Angeles pitchers; four each off Oakland and San Francisco pitchers; while Portland pitchers had helped Brief most effectively to his home run record, eight of his home runs being made off Beaver slabsters.

Noyes of Portland has been Brief's chief victim, being found for three home runs; Houck and Sothoron have each been hit for two; and Kelly one.

Klawitter, Martin, Beer and Boyd are the Oakland pitchers against each of whom Brief has made one home run. Of the San Francisco pitchers, Brief has made two home runs off Steen and one each off Brown and Baum. Against Vernon, Brief's home runs have been exchanged to Hess, 2, and Arellanes, 1. Against Los Angeles, they have been Scroggins, 2; Standridge, 1.

Los Angeles and Vernon pitchers continue to monopolize the honor among the regular slabsters in holding opponents to low aggregate batting averages. For the first nineteen weeks of the race, Fromme led the regulars, holding opponents to a .221 batting clip; Ryan of Los Angeles was a good second at .228 with Decanniere of Vernon tied with him but credited with less work. Horstman of Los Angeles has held opponents to .229; and Martin of Oakland is next in line at .230. Noyes is Portland's best bet at .239; Steen at .245 leads the San Francisco pitchers; and Fittery at .259 leads Salt Lake.

Following records show opponents' at bat, hits and batting averages against each pitcher up to August 14:

O'DOWD WINS OVER SHERIDAN.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 19. — Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul, welterweight, decisively defeated Mickey Sheridan of Chicago in a ten-round no decision bout here last night. In the opinion of newspaper men at the ringside. The local fighter weighed in at 147; Sheridan, 146½.

PRIZES GALORE AND TROPHIES BEAUTIFUL FOR TRIBUNE RUNNERS

Fine Gold Watches, Handsome Silver Cups, Silver Buckled Belts, Finely Embossed Medals and "Oodles" of Silver and Gold Bars Will Be Presented to Runners of Fourth Annual Tribune Merritt Marathon

Never before have amateur athletes raced for such prizes. Athletes who have seen the trophies, medals and prizes that are going to be given to the winners of the Fourth Annual Tribune Marathon are overawed with their maginifcence. There is nothing too good for the boys that are racing in The Tribune Marathon, for they are helping Oakland's great paper in its campaign for clean athletics. The TRIBUNE wants to prove to the world the class of the Alameda County athletes, and those boys who prove themselves regular fellows by getting out for the six-and-a-quarter-mile run are going to be rewarded. The sky and the amateur rulings as to the value of prizes are the only limits.

The first three prizes are of nearly the same value. The limit for the value of the first prize was too low to suit The TRIBUNE, but amateur rules must be adhered to, so the second and third prizes were places at nearly the same value. The first prize is a handsome gold watch, of the very latest "verithin" Waltham model; the second prize is also a gold watch with a very fine Waltham movement, and of very little less value than the first prize. The third prize is a gold case Elgin watch of exceptionally fine time-keeping qualities.

As for the trophies that will bring out the leading clubs and schools of Central California, they are the best that money can buy. One beautiful cup of ornate design will go to the club furnishing the best five-man team. The other cup, handsomely plain in design, is to be the entry prize. The club or organization that furnishes the most runners to finish in the time limit of one hour will get the entry cup.

Prizes for the "ordinary" fellows, those who follow the first three crack runners, are many and valuable. The first high school runner to finish the race will receive a medal, handsomely embossed and finely engraved. Medals will also be given to the first Y. M. C. A. and first out of Alameda county runners.

The next seven runners to finish will receive handsome leather belts, with solid silver engraved buckles. These belts were especially made by the Herbert Jackson company, Thirteenth and Webster, and will be on display there shortly. The same firm is also making the 150 solid silver bars to be given to all the boys who finish the course of six and a quarter miles inside the time limit of one hour.

Saturday

Gay awnings will go up about the City Hall plaza at the end of this week, and once again Oakland will have a market-place presided over by fair hucksters instead of the sons of Italy and modern Greece. Market baskets will be another day au fait; merchants and feminine persons in town will lunch under the sky below the City Hall tower.

The West Oakland Home Harvest Market next Saturday will be more fortunate in the weather, probably, than that given for the Belgians by a hundred or more society women last spring. That day chose to be decidedly, coldly gray—though all the wares in sight were looted by the shoppers who hung around till the last hamper was carted away. Otherwise it will be on similar lines.

As the women who have the cause of the West Oakland Home have had this idea in mind ever since the first Belgian market was given across the bay with such eclat, they are thoroughly prepared. It had been originally intended to hold it then, but one was held for the Belgians instead, and their's postponed until this autumn. Many of the energetic women of local society who were so instrumental in making the other "go"—Mrs. Willard Williamson, for instance—are helping the Harvest Day, and will, no doubt, be interesting assistants next Saturday.

Miss Grace Trevor, for so many seasons president of the Home, is chairman of the executive committee, with Mrs. I. A. Beretta, Mrs. C. J. Heseman, Mrs. A. M. Beebe and Mrs. R. B. Ayer to assist her.

Mrs. Willard Williamson—who makes almost any enterprise she undertakes a success—has charge of a booth of potted plants and flowers. Mrs. H. S. Bonestell, Mrs. Frank Bilger, Mrs. Louis D. Manning and Mrs. A. M. Beebe will be among those in her stall.

Others who are taking an active part are Mrs. H. J. Larkey, Mrs. Samuel S. Shepard, Mrs. C. J. Heseman, Mrs. Joseph Russell Knowland, Mrs. Seth Talcott, Mrs. George Ryno, Mrs. H. D. Mehrmann, Mrs. George Cockerton, Mrs. Walter Morgan, Mrs. N. T. Harper, Miss Elizabeth Emilie, Miss Effie Smilie, Miss Katherine Woolsey, Miss Marion Woolsey, Miss Lynda Wight, Miss Marion Smith, Miss Berita Fisher, Miss Janice Kergan, Miss Marion Zahn, Miss Ethel Moore, Miss Annie Florence Brown.

No engagement of the autumn thus far has proved so complete a surprise as that of Miss Marie Rose Legault, daughter of Dr. J. W. Legault, and Herbert Gray Hills, announced by cards received this morning.

Miss Legault, who is one of the well-known girls of the younger set and a niece of Mrs E. Remillard, has been attending the University of California and had eight months more before taking her degree from the college of letters. No one had even faintly suspected a romance until today. She has decided not to return to college, though as yet no plans have been made for the wedding. Needless to say, she will be one of the much feted engaged girls of the season, especially by the former graduates of Miss Head's.

Herbert Hills is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hills of Bella Vista street, whose coffee interests extend over wide territory. He is associated in business in San Francisco with his father.

Marin county is enjoying a perfect orgy of gaiety this week-end, beginning with the dance given for Miss Flora Miller last Friday night at the Marin County Golf and Country Club and continuing today with an astonishing barbecue and another dance tonight—not to mention an exhausting number of dinners and luncheons and other galeties that those still gifted with an infinite capacity for diversion will enjoy.

The debut of Miss Miller, it seems, is not to be for another year. But numerous debutantes shared the party with the sub-debs and apparently had an immensely jolly time. The clubhouse had been filled with a riot of dahlias, and golden rod, russett brown-eyed Susans and harvest colored field flowers—all the hues that Jules Guerin says make for light-hearted extravagance.

Before the dance there was an elaborate dinner over which Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Miller presided, and at which a number of the most popular of the younger set were guests. Miss Sally Havens was among the young girls who are not to come out this season. Others were:

Miss Kate Crocker, Miss Elena Eyre, Miss Marion Baker, Miss Leontine de Sabla, George Pinckard, Leroy Nickel, Lincoln McCormick, Jerome Tallant and many others.

One of the brilliant military weddings of the season will be that of Miss Ciara Baross, the stunning daughter of Mr. and Mrs Charles Baross of this city, and Major G. J. Mund of the Coast Artillery Corps, September 6, at the Palace hotel. This ceremony will be the result of another Exposition romance, as Miss Baross first met her fiance last year when she attended a banquet given at the California Building for ex-President William H. Taft. Before her visit to the Fair she had been attending a big school in Michigan, studying the domestic arts that are so much extolled in her native country, Germany.

Major Mund is well known in military circles on the coast and in society and is a member of the Union League Club across the bay. Colonel H. G. Mathewson of the Artillery Corps will be his best man and another confrere, Adjutant General C. W. Thomas, will give the bride away. Rev. Joseph McQuaide, chaplain of the Artillery Corps, will officiate at this nine o'clock ceremony.

The groomsmen will be Captain G. W. Bauer, U. S. S. Oregon; Lieutenant J. A. McGee; Captain W. P. Platt, U. S. A.; Lieutenant R. W. Campbell, U. S. A.; Major R. E. Mittelstaedt, Captain Allen G. Wright, Captain L. R. Cofer and Captain C. D. Y. Ostrom.

The tea given for Miss Phyllis Partington this afternoon by her sister, Miss Gertrude Partington, attracted an unusually colorful gathering of conspicuous California writers and artists and painters—as well as of those who are interested in persons and things aesthetic—across the bay to congratulate the young singer, Mrs. Richard L. Partington, her sister-in-law; Mrs James Newlands, Mrs. Jack Partington and Mrs. Louis C. Mullgardt assisted in receiving—an interesting group in themselves.

Miss Phyllis, before her departure for places where musical reputations are made—and where hers has been established—had grown up among a coterie devoted to the various muses—in various fashions. Many of these old friends were among the guests asked to this affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Mulgardt, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brugulere, Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mr. and Mrs Frank Carroll Giffen, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Coryell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rolfe Peters, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hopper, Mr. and Mrs Jack London; J. Nelson Laurence, Mr. and Mrs. John McNear, Mr. and Mrs. James Newlands Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Spreckels, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stackpole, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Guiseppe Piazzoni, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Pedro J. Lemos, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leahy, Mr. and Mrs. Xavier Martinez, Mr. and Mrs. Perham Nahl, Mr. and Mrs Paul Steindorff, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. D. The first "the dansant" to be given this autumn at the Palace Hotel for the Boys' Outing Farm will claim the philanthropic efforts of a number of the matrons of society on both sides of the bay. Mrs. Philip E. Bowles; Mrs Wickham Havens are among the patronesses, and the magical name of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst is decidedly there.

The affair is to take place on October 7, and by that time a number of original entertainment features, including an odd Greek pageant, will be ready to amuse those who dance for the good cause. This will be the first time probably that a story of Greece will figure as part of a cabaret performance.

On the list of patronesses—many of whom will be hostesses that afternoon—are these and many others.

Mesdames George W. McNear Jr., Mark L. Gerstle, Eleanor Martin, Homer King, George T. Cameron, Daniel T. Murphy, William G. Irwin, A. W. Scott, Philip E. Bowles, Joseph B. Coryell, William J. Lec. Joseph Rucker, James Rolph Jr., Joseph D. Grant, Phoebe Hearst, Roy Pike, Francis Carolan, Henry T. Scott, William T. Sesnon, Wickham Havens, William Thomas, Stanley Morsehead, William Dougherty. Visiting in California this summer and leaving a decided impression everywhere, is Mrs. William P. Bassett of Rochester, N. Y., a sister of Archbishop Edward Hanna and a most charming person. For over a month Mrs. Bassett and her distinguished brother have been touring by motor through the picturesque regions of the state, touching at Del Monte and other resorts on the way.

During this week she is the house guest of Mrs. Allan G. Freeman, who gave a small luncheon for her Thursday at her home in Berkeley, and is being entertained informally by many of the matrons around the bay. Her departure is set for the early part of next week.

Mrs. A. M. Belcher and her charming granddaughter, Miss Bobbie Belcher, are living at Hotel Claremont, where they plan to spend the winter. At present they are still in mourning but later in the fall Miss Belcher, as a bride-elect of the season, will be entertained quietly by a number of the younger girls and by several young matrons including her future sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Hays Van Sant Jr.

Until early in the summer they had been for some time in Grass Valley, where Mrs. Belcher usually makes her home, and their coming to town has been a great pleasure to their many friends here.

The departure of Mrs. Willard Williamson for the East, where she plans to spend the winter enjoying the galeties of several of the more brilliant centers, has been set for September 12. Miss Lorna Williamson, who is one of the cleverest of the future belles, goes with her to enter an Eastern college. Mr. Williamson will spend a brief interval with them, returning first.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Ayres are much troubled by Mr. Ayres' serious illness and are showering him with flowers at a sanitarium in East Oakland where he has been lying in a critical condition since he was brought up from Santa Barbara and taken there in an ambulance.

Mrs. Ayres, who is staying with relatives here, is devotion itself and is spending all her afternoons at his side. Her sisters—Mrs. H. W. Dibert, Mrs. J. J. O'Brien and Miss Clara Franck—are also daily visitors at the sanitarium, so their circle is seeing little of them these days. Mrs. Ayres, Mrs. Dibert, Mrs. O'Brien and Miss Franck form a quartet of such unquestioned beauty that they have always been noticeable in town, and the marriage of Miss Anna Franck to the popular actor was one of considerable interest a few years ago to society.

While Mr. Ayres is in a less precarious state he and Mrs. Ayres will return to their home in the southern part of the state.

Before returning to school, many of the girls who are not yet out are to share in festivities with the debutantes. Ever so many of these parties have been given across the bay and down the peninsula and several more are scheduled for the next week, including one large affair on this side—the dancing party that Mrs. Richard Lyman and Augustin McDonald are joining in giving for their two young daughters, Miss Marian Lyman and Miss Mora McDonald, next Saturday evening at the Claremont Country club.

Both Miss Lyman and Miss McDonald will not make their debuts for at least another season, but there are to be many of the debutantes from both sides of the bay and down the peninsula and a number of guests from the two universities among the dancers.

Another of these parties will be one at which Miss Geraldine Gannon will be hostess this evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs Walter Scott Gannon, in El Camino Real. Miss Harriet Pomeroy, her attractive cousin and daughter of the John North Pomeroys of Chicago, will be the guest of honor, and the guests will be several score of the younger set.

Last evening Miss Elizabeth Allardt entertained a number of the sub-debutante set at an informal dance for her cousin, Miss Elisa Roeder, who came up from Santa Barbara with her father, Emil C. Roeder, several weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Allardt and their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, had been touring the southern part of the state and Yosemite Valley with the Roeders and have brought them to town to be their house guests. The little dancing party really concluded an enjoyable visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Corwin (Anne Newbegin) whose wedding was an event of last Thursday night in Berkeley, are touring the south and on their return from their honeymoon will make their home in San Francisco.

The Newbegin-Corwin wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's father, Edward A. Corwin of East Orange, N. J., in Francisco street, in the presence of two score friends and with Rev. Edward Lamb Parsons of St. Marks Episcopal Church officiating. Miss Myra Gilchrist was the maid of honor and Howard Lewis of New York served as best man while Miss Helen Morse, a niece, completed the bridal party.

Until recently the Newbegins made their home in Mill Valley where they are well known.

Sixteen of the friends of Miss Peggy Warnecke, who will become the bride of Harold Wright Aydelotte on September 6, were guests this afternoon at a shower given by Mrs. Joseph Hutton at her home in Forty-first avenue. Mrs. Hutton, who was Miss Gertrude Warnecke until her marriage a year ago, invited in honor of her sister: Miss Helen Sabiano, Miss Helen Suhr, Miss Gladys Downs, Miss Muriel Hearsch, Miss Ella Barkman, Miss Ruth Eccleston, Miss Mary Eccleston, Miss Winnie Watson and a number of others.

Two other affairs planned for the bride-elect are showers that will be given within the coming week—one by Miss Winnie Watson at her home in Webster street on the afternoon of August 26, another at which Miss Helen Sabiano will be the hostess.

One of Miss Warnecke's coterie of friends, Miss Ida Wittchen, will also be a bride on September 6, when she will marry Robert Sproule of the treasury department of the University of California.

Among the summer travelers who returned home this week were Mrs. C. Ellsworth Hudson and Miss Effie Hudson, who have been enjoying an extended eastern trip. They left during the early vacation days for a visit to British Columbia, later enjoying a sojourn in Yellowstone National Park.

On their way east, they visited many points of interest, including the usual stops at Denver, Colorado Springs and on their return spent some time at the Grand Canyon and the San Diego Exposition. Miss Maybelle Hudson, who accompanied her mother and sister on their eastern trip, is at present visiting college friends in Southern California.

Women IN THE News

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Swinging through the graceful curves of a waltz on skates at the Ice Palace yesterday morning, Mrs. George W. McNear, social leader and wife of the head of the shipping firm of George W. McNear & Co., caught the heel point of her skate in her skirt and fell, the razor edge of the skate cutting a deep gash in her ankle and, severing blood vessels.

Mrs. McNear swooned. Her daughter, Mrs. George Nickel, and Elmira McNear, swept across the ice to their mother's aid. Other women skaters in the rink at the time screamed, and a near panic ensued. Mrs. McNear was taken in an ambulance to Auler's Sanitarium under the care of Dr. Harold Brunn.

A gay skating party was spoiled by the accident. Much blood was lost before the flow was stopped.

The wound, while painful, is not regarded as serious.

CHILDHOOD ROMANCE ENDS IN WEDDING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—A romance which began twenty years ago, when both the principals were school children, blossomed into happy reality yesterday when John K. Kelly, coroner of Yuba county, and Miss Etta Wenzel, both of Marysville, were married by Rev. M. Coleman of Marysville at St. Mary's Cathedral in this city.

It was twenty years ago that Kelly and Miss Wenzel vowed to wed some day in the distant future. Kelly is now president of the Trolley League and formerly was a director of the Marysville baseball club.

Mrs. Kelly is the daughter of an old Yuba county family which has been prominent in civic activities for many years. Kelly and his bride left San Francisco yesterday on a honeymoon trip the itinerary of which was kept secret. The couple will make their home in Marysville.

GIRL IS ROBBED BY TWO THUGS IN BUS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Miss Marguerite Reynolds, a cafe entertainer, reported to the police yesterday that she was set upon by two men in a jitney bus on Divisadero street and robbed of 35 cents yesterday morning. The men then kicked her out of the car, according to her story. Last night Walter Delehanty and Harry Reininger, clerks, were arrested as the girl's assailants.

AGED STOCKTON WOMAN CALLED BY DEATH.

STOCKTON, Aug. 19.—Death has claimed Mrs. Christian Heinze of this city. She was a woman 75 years of age, who came to this city over fifty years ago. Mrs. Heinze was a native of Germany, and has been prominent in all German social activities during the fifty years she has lived in Stockton.

GIRL SAVES BABIES IN LOS ANGELES FIRE.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—Despite the fact that Ella Samuels, 12 years old, had been in bed two days, ill with fever, she twice proved herself a heroine when a fire broke out in her home at Twenty-fifth and Hoover streets, in the room where her baby brother, Raymond, 2 years old, lay sleeping.

Hearing a crackling sound, Ella dashed into the burning room, clad only in a nightgown, and, grasping the sleeping child, ran into the hall, the flames singeing her hair as she passed through the door.

By this time the mother and grandmother were warned. The mother gathered into her arms another sleeping baby, Benjamin. Ellen rushed back through the dense smoke that filled the house and grabbed Benjamin from her mother's arms, leaving her parent free to help the aged grandmother to safety.

Ella again started to plunge into the suffocating smoke to rescue three other children of the family, but was detained by friends, who assured her that the other children were safe, as they were outside when the fire started.

FAIR BELGIAN IS BRIDE OF RANCHER.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—A romance which began when the German armies devastated Belgium and forced pretty Miss Rachael Maertens to flee to Ventura county friends, culminated when Rev. Father Martin officiated in Santa Clara church at the marriage of the refugee to one of Ventura's wealthiest young ranchers, Joseph A. Callens. Miss Maertens came to California two years ago to the home of a brother of her present husband, R. J. Callens.

"QUEEN" ARRESTED; BLIND PIG, CHARGE.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—The arrest of Lola Sadela, a beautiful woman, known as the "Queen" of the Mexican quarter in Cucamonga, on a charge of running a "blind pig" was made by Cucamonga officers when they searched her house and discovered a secret liquor cache that opened by pressing an electric button.

ROMANCE REACHES DIVORCE COURT

Society Girl Who Laughed at Warning Says She Is Deserted.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Helen Morton Bayly, daughter of Mark Morton, capitalist of Lake Forest, has sued for divorce in Waukegan, charging desertion. The bill recites that she was married to Roger Bayly of Delaplane, Virginia, on June 4, 1914, and lived with him until August of the same year.

The departure of Miss Morton from her father's home and her visit to Virginia, where Bayly lived, preceding the marriage of the young couple, occupied public attention at the time owing to the social prominence of the Mortons. Mrs. Bayly is the granddaughter of J. Sterling Morton, prominent in Nebraska and national politics in the eighties. When Miss Morton, who was a devotee of the outdoor life, began to receive the attentions of the young Virginian her parents objected. She defied them and finally went to Virginia and later married Bayly against the wishes of her parents and relatives.

Solos and Part Songs for Chorus

With an elaborate program of solos and new part songs, the Alameda County Chorus, under Alexander Stewart, will give two concerts in connection with "Try Oakland First" week, September 23 to 30, at the Civic Auditorium during the progress of the Industrial Exposition to be held there.

The Chamber of Commerce has offered Director Stewart its services and assistance in a membership extension campaign to enlarge the chorus to at least five hundred voices for the Industrial Exposition concerts and a special committee, consisting of Owen E. Hotle, A. I. Lavenson and Dr. J. Loran Pease, was formed to act in an advisory capacity in all matters relating to the chorus. Rehearsals have already begun on every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Civic Auditorium.

Lola Beautiful Stops

(By HOWARD R. GARIS.)

"Where are you going this morning, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper, as she saw the rabbit gentleman hopping down off the front porch of his hollow stump farm house. "Are you going to dig potatoes, or shell some peas?"

"Well, I don't exactly know," answered the rabbit gentleman. "I am going to take a walk over my farm and see how it looks after the rain," for there had been a shower in the night, and now, as the sun came up, each leaf glistened like forty 'leven million diamonds.

"Well, don't forget to come back for lunch," said Nurse Jane as she went in and closed the door so the flies couldn't buzz around the gas stove. "We are going to have watermelon short cake for lunch."

"Oh, I'll be sure to come," laughed Uncle Wiggily, and then he went on over his farm.

Through the woods and across the fields he went, and pretty soon he came to a place where he had planted some beans.

"They ought to be almost ready to pick now," said the bunny gentleman to himself, but goodness me sakes alive, and some buttered toast! When Mr. Longears looked for the beans he couldn't see one. They had not come up.

"This is funny!" exclaimed the bunny uncle.

"What is funny?" asked a voice suddenly, and at first the bunny was afraid it might be the skillery scalery alligator with the humps on his tail, or the ear-scratching cat. But it was neither, being, in fact, Grandfather Goosey Gander himself.

"What is funny?" asked Grandpa Goosey.

"No beans growing here," said Uncle Wiggily. "I am sure I planted some. It is funny they didn't come up."

Grandpa Goosey flew over the fence and looked at the ground.

"No wonder your beans did not come up," he said said.

"Why didn't they?" Uncle Wiggily wanted to know.

"Because there are too many stones in this field," went on Grandpa Goosey. "Why, it is just covered with them! The beans must be all underneath the stones."

"If I took the stones off, would the beans come up?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"Of course they would," spoke Grandpa Goosey.

"Then off come the stones!" cried Uncle Wiggily, and he began throwing them off his field into a little brook nearby, which already had many stones in it, but did not mind having more.

"I'll help you," said Grandpa Goosey, and he, too, began tossing away the stones.

But the rabbit gentleman and the goose grandpa had tossed only a few stones when their backs began to ache, for they were not boys any longer, you know, though they acted so sometimes.

"Oh, dear!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "It will take a year to clear this field of stones. There are so many!"

"There are quite a lot," said Grandpa Goosey sadly. "But if we don't get rid of the stones the beans will not grow."

Uncle Wiggily looked at the hundreds and thousands of stones. Then he suddenly cried with a twinkle of his nose:

"Ha! I know what to do. I have a plan to get rid of these stones very easily."

"How?" asked Grandpa Goosey.

"I'll show you in a minute. Just you stay here, and, when you hear me coming back, you begin throwing stones, easy like so as not to strain your wing."

"Well," said Grandpa Goosey, wiping his yellow bill on a blade of green grass, "I don't know what your plan is, but I'll do as you say. Hop along!"

So Uncle Wiggily hopped along, his eyes twinkling as well as his nose. Pretty soon he met Sammie Littletail, the rabbit boy.

"Sammie, are you a good stone thrower?" asked the bunny uncle.

"Fine!" cried Sammie. "The best ever!"

"Come with me," said Uncle Wiggily, mysterious like.

He went along a little farther and met Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the two squirrels.

"Are you good stone throwers?" he asked.

"Dandy!" they chattered.

"Come with me!" invited the bunny uncle. And, in the same way, he got Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, the puppies, and Billie Wagtail, the goat, and many other animal boys. Then he took them to the stony field.

"Ahem!" cried Uncle Wiggily out loud, to let Grandpa Goosey know he was coming, with the animal boys. At once the goose gentleman began throwing stones.

"Ha!" cried Uncle Wiggily, innocent-like. "There is some one throwing stones out of my field. He seems to be a good thrower, too. I wonder if any of you boys can beat him."

"I can!" cried Sammie. "And I—and I!" cried the other animal chaps. Down into the stony field they scampered, and each one began throwing stones out of it into the brook, trying to beat Grandpa Goosey and each other. In a little while, not a stone was left in the field and the beans could come up as easy as pie.

"My! My!" cried Uncle Wiggily, rubbing his eyes as he saw all the stones gone and without any trouble on his part at all. "You animal chaps are certainly good throwers. I guess I'll have to give you each an ice cream cone."

And he did, and Sammie and the others wondered why Uncle Wiggily and Grandpa Goosey laughed so. Do you know?

Anyhow, this teaches us that there are more ways of eating pie than with a fork. And, if the lollypop doesn't fall off the stick and splash into the mulberry jam, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the hay.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1916.

A SUBJECT OF LOCAL INTEREST.

In his speech in San Francisco last evening Governor Hughes discussed a subject closer than any other to the business heart of California. Men and women in every walk of life know, if they have not temporarily forgotten it, that economic conditions in California are such that there can be no prosperity with importation of cheap foreign labor and of cheaply made foreign manufactures. We of California have been able to put up a sort of protection against immigration through the action of the State government, but the matter of protection against foreign-made goods rests exclusively with the national government. We are helpless to do anything but to elect to office an executive and legislators pledged to support the policy of protection for the whole country.

Governor Hughes asked the voters not to forget the conditions in the country prior to the outbreak of the war—during the years of 1913 and 1914, normal years under the Underwood tariff law. Then the unemployed were walking "the streets of our cities in every part of the land. The jobless were seeking food at the hands of charity. Those who were willing and able to work were without sustenance for themselves or their families. Enterprise halted, business languished, new undertakings were not promoted."

Just as it had become apparent that the tariff law was destructive of economic tranquility and industrial prosperity, and inadequate as a revenue-raising measure, the war intervened to create artificial prosperity in isolated sections of the country. Governor Hughes discussed at some length the detailed effects of the war trade, but he might have said that the trade in strictly war supplies, for the twelve months ended June 30th last, was over $2,500,000,000, or about the same as our "favorable" balance in foreign trade.

We must not forget the failure and the destroying effect of the Democratic tariff in 1913 and 1914, said Mr. Hughes. Californians must not forget that they will be visited upon them again as soon as the war ends, unless the tariff laws are amended to give domestic industries protection. President Wilson has said that he has changed his mind about a tariff for revenue only and is in favor of a tariff commission to devise a protective tariff, but, even if we should rely upon his sincerity, we must bear in mind that the Democratic legislators and the Democratic leaders in Congress are unchanged. Leaders Kitchin and Underwood are already denouncing the President for his recent promises of a tariff for protection.

NOTABLE GREETING FOR MR. HUGHES.

Oakland has joined in welcoming Governor Hughes to California in a spirit and demonstration comparable to the honor shown the city by the candidate's visit. The gathering of citizens at the Municipal Auditorium this afternoon, while Republicans were in the majority, was in a broad and creditable sense a nonpartisan greeting. Progressives and Democrats also were there. Their appreciation of the opportunity to greet the man who probably will be the next President of the United States was as cordial as that of Republicans was patriotic and joyful.

Arrangements for Governor Hughes to speak in Oakland were not made until the proverbial last minute and the audience that greeted him in the auditorium was above expectations. This is a source of deep gratification. Not many presidential candidates have considered it worth while to visit the Pacific Coast, and the people of this section of the country have suffered thereby. There has existed at the national capital a regrettable lack of understanding of and consideration for the interests of the Pacific Coast.

If Mr. Hughes is elected Oaklanders will be privileged to feel that they enjoy a sort of personal acquaintanceship with the President and to rely upon him at least having a comprehension of the geographical relations of California to the remainder of the country. His visit here has been of great advantage to the city and we are confident it will be a source of benefit to Mr. Hughes and his candidacy.

ARMY BILL PROPERLY VETOED.

President Wilson is to be warmly commended for vetoing the army reorganization bill. It contained a provision which was at once destructive of discipline and a menace to the efficiency in the army. The clause, slipped through without debate, exempting retired officers from the jurisdiction of military law and trial by military courts is vicious in spirit and absolutely without provocation of fact or reason.

Such news as has come from Washington concerning this project of legislation gives color to the report that one or two retired army officers were at the bottom of the scheme and had in contemplation the commission of acts which are punishable under present military law and procedure. Courtmartial law views criticism of the army and its officers by a fellow officer as a serious breach of regulations and prejudicial to discipline. Our civil laws permit wide license of speech. Thus if retired officers were not subject to military law they would be in a position of unrestraint to make attacks upon the organization and their brother officers in active service. It is easy to see that the demoralizing effect of such tactics if pursued to any extent, might be very serious.

The action of Congress in passing such an important measure without hearing the opinions of the legal advisors of the War Department and members of the staff of the army is more difficult of comprehension. There is nothing unjust or unduly severe about our present administration of military law; active army officers do not complain against it and the civil courts do not care to be burdened with an extra class of cases. Furthermore, there is no reason for making a distinction as to what judicial system they are amenable between active and retired officers. The retired officer is none the less an officer because of his retirement from active service. He is on the government roster for pay and allowances to the extent of three-fourths of his remuneration for active service. The President is vested with authority to summon a retired officer to active service at any moment or to command him to perform any proper military duty as a retired officer. Congress has wisely delegated this authority to the President and it is necessary in our scheme of national defense. To take away from the President the power to punish officers for refusal to perform their duty, as the exemption clause contemplated, would be a fatal mistake.

The chairman of the House military affairs committee, Representative Hay, who slipped in the army bill a "joker" creating a new office for the exclusive benefit of a Virginia friend, appears to have been guilty of a similar indiscretion in the exemption-for-retired-officers clause. He should correct his "mistake" by amending the army bill as to its objectionable features and expediting its re-enactment.

THE STRIKE SITUATION.

Slow progress, if any, is being made toward arbitration of the controversy between railroad operators and employees. The President has adapted the school-master's tactics to the situation by summoning officials of the railroads and the four brotherhoods of workmen to Washington, haranguing them and in effect informing them they must be good, according to his ideas, or be punished. Such methods are not conducive to a spirit of compromise. In the first place, the calling of additional operators and employees to the White House was unnecessary and untimely. The railways have selected a "managers' committee" and the brotherhoods a "demands committee." Both committees have been given full power to take definite and final action. Both sides are satisfied with their representatives and the President's commands to others to come and consult with him can only be confusing.

The first indication that Mr. Wilson designs to make political capital out of the situation in his efforts to force one side—the operators—to accede to the demands of the other without a hearing of the merits claimed by both sides. This is one way of arbitrating a dispute, but its success always depends upon the willingness of one side to yield. However, if a strike may be avoided by adopting this course the end would justify the means, but we rather fear that an arbitrary attitude by the President will serve to make successful arbitration more difficult if not impossible of achievement.

This is the 180th day of the battle of Verdun. The estimates of the losses of each side vary and are to be accepted as final at this time, but it may safely be recorded that Verdun is already the longest, costliest and most destructive battle in all history. But this is purely a sentimental appreciation; from a military viewpoint, the battle has not been decisive nor can it be observed that it has materially influenced the larger issues of the war.

Exasperated Chinese have attacked a Japanese garrison at a railway station in Manchuria, killing and wounding a score of Japanese soldiers. The Chinese government has doubtless already commenced to figure how much territory and what degree of national dignity and integrity this episode will cost. Japan's demands for reparation probably will include something equal to a cession of four or five provinces.

NOTES and COMMENT

The Woodland Democrat says that "President Wilson's sense of humor will save him from the hurts of unjust criticism." Same way with McDevitt.

McDevitt says that his talk about shooting preparedness paraders in the back was all a joke. Which is as it may be; but the official inquiry shouldn't be.

We suspect the Fremont Tribune of insidiousness when it declares that "the absence of W. J. Bryan from the Democratic state convention of Nebraska was very marked."

This is the day and age when injunctions have ceased to enjoin. For exhibits see the proceedings in re. the picketing of cafes and the indiscriminate running of jitneys on Market street.

The purchasing public that has never questioned the weight must be interested in the report that out of 223 scales tested by the sealer of weights and measures but 55 were accurate, and 64 were condemned.

"The price of fish is to be fixed by a board of five." It must be rather a pleasant task to be in a position to determine what a hundred thousand people or so are to pay for their daily bass, lobsters and things.

A project to tunnel the bay, in competition with the bridge projects, is now to the fore. The illustrations show how easy it may be done, but the cost would be about three times as much. And perhaps it is not as easy as it looks at that.

See what's here again! "Uncle Tom's Cabin"! No other that was ever done is endowed with the blessed vitality of this piece. Uncle Tom, and Eliza, and little impossible Eva, and Legree, and the bloodhounds, seem destined to go on forever.

The other women of Farallone complained to the sheriff of the one who wore a bathing suit and walked through the town in it and nothing more. That sort of stunt and the sharks appear to be quite the regular thing at seaside resorts this year.

The Prince of Siam, here to go to school, acts and dresses just like an American boy, and barring a certain eye-slant, and sallowness, and rather high cheek bones, looks like one. He doesn't even give us the satisfaction of staring at and patronizing him.

In a divorce suit it is alleged that the defendant "has pinched her legs and arms almost continuously for about three years." The imagination at once falls to work as to how he shaved and managed his meals, not to consider working at his trade, which is that of an architect.

Political item: "John Francis Neylan, chairman of the State Board of Control, addressed a meeting of 500 at the Armory last week and found all of Butte county enthusiastic for the Governor for United States Senator." Thought Butte county was more heavily populated than that.

The pendulum is on the backward swing. Having shortened up the skirt about as far as it safe, it is decreed that they must be longer for the winter wear, and now it may be they will keep on growing till they get back to that amplitude that was their characteristic when they were in league with the street-sweeping machines.

The Chico Enterprise strikes the amiable attitude thus: "Chico rejoices in the advantage that will incur to Marysville with the reopening of the long-closed woolen mills. There was a time when the Marysville mills turned out the finest, the warmest and the brighest red flannel shirts in the world. They afforded an impregnable barrier to drafts, dampness and chill and were an unfailing preventive of rheumatism."

IN NOVEMBER.

The philosophers have begun figuring out the number of presidential electors that Hughes and Wilson will have. Nothing like an early start. The most of the philosophising that we have seen demonstrated that Hughes was sure of a comfortable majority. Frankly, we like that sort the best.

At the same time it ought to be realized that Wilson has a start in the group of Southern States that no man should have, be he Republican or Democratic. The vote for president should not be figured out in advance with practical certainty as solid in any one section.

The Democrats are claiming Maine and Connecticut and other states in New England, calling New York and New Jersey debatable or theirs, insisting that Indiana is sure for two Democratic senators, as well as for the presidential ticket, and scattering their claims otherwise all over the map of the United States.

We do not believe that this intelligent people will perpetuate the present futile administration, but, if the Republicans win, it will not be by any sectional division. Hughes starts with an appeal to the voters and Wilson starts with a big block of States as surely for him today as they will be when the votes are counted. They can take offence at his child labor attitude and then can get mad at his course in the sugar tariff, but they vote the Democratic ticket anyway, and so that makes no matter.—Hartford Courant.

QUEST OF THE GOLDEN FLEECE.

The swift wind moves across the growing grain,
Which ripples softly, like a sleeping sea;
To the horizon sweep the billows free,
Moving, yet anchored to the level plain.
So move the waves across the landlocked bay
Beneath the unveiled glory of the sun,
While eastward flitting shadows lightly run,
And warm winds pass upon their seaward way.

Dreaming, I seem to hear the cordage groan
Which binds the sail upon the straining mast;
I wake, to hear the whirling windmill's moan,
Like some toil weary Titan of the past;
Ye who have sought the Fleece without avail,
This is the sea whereon ye should set sail.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

A contributor to the Forum in your issue of the 15th inst., who veils his or her identity behind the initials C. P. C., indicates the sort of specious reasoning indulged in by some of the proponents of prohibition.

Let me say by way of preface that indulging in innuendo is a favorite expedient of the anonymous antagonist, and if C. P. C. will come out from cover and meet me in the open, I will establish that what he refers to as the "so called" Property Owners' Protective Association is exactly what its name implies: an organization of several hundred bona fide property owners, both men and women, who are not in the liquor business, but who have millions of dollars at stake, besides many owners of modest homes whose investments are menaced by Prohibition. Furthermore, the implication that the scheme of ruin he advocates applies to but 5000 acres of wine grapes is another evidence of the deceptive arguments often advanced by the "drys." C. P. C. fails to indicate that 5000 acres of wine grapes are involved in Alameda county alone, and the destruction proposed effects approximately 170,000 acres in the state. This shows that the statement of C. P. C. is about one-thirty-fourth correct, which is perhaps a fair average of accuracy.

Your correspondent concedes that the Oakland property owner "has a heavy load to carry in the way of taxes," and then proceeds to advocate piling on more tax burden by voting to cut off from the city of Oakland $240,306 of revenue from liquor licenses which, in itself, would, upon the evidence of certified accountants in my possession, add 16.8 cents to the local tax rate, while the further withdrawal of personal property taxes paid by persons, firms, and corporations engaged in business which would be destroyed by Prohibition Amendments One and Two, would entail a total raise in the tax rate of at least 25 cents.

Then C. P. C. proposes, by Prohibition Amendments One and Two in Alameda county, alone, to:

Close 500 places of business.
Cut off $600,000 a year rent.
Put 3000 persons out of work.
Stop a payroll of over $2,700,000 a year.
Deprive 15,000 persons of their means of livelihood.
Injuriously affect 29 lines of related industries.
Destroy $3,000,000 invested in breweries.
Pull up 5000 acres of wine grapes in the Livermore Valley, valued at more than $1,500,000.

This is what C. P. C. advises us to wipe out at the ballot box on November 7.

"True," says this advocate of confiscation and destruction, "the loss of the few would be great for the time being and might possibly bankrupt the wine associations and some of the liquor men."

Let us see how many constitute "the few" and what is the extent of the interests that this policy proposes to bankrupt, break up, destroy, and exterminate in this state:

There are 69 breweries in California representing an investment in round figures of $50,000,000.

Wages paid annually to employees	$6,000,000
Value of materials used	3,500,000
Taxes paid	1,000,000
Heads of families employed	4,000
Persons dependent upon brewing industry	20,000

Bankrupt them, advises C. P. C.

There are in California 700 wineries which produce annually in new wealth $15,000,000 while the prosperity of the entire grape growing industry in California is involved accordingly to Mr. James Madison, manager of the California Associated Raisin Company of Fresno and Mr. Burton Towne of Lodi, one of the leading growers of table grapes in California.

These gentlemen ought to know.

In a letter to the California Development Board on the effect of Amendments One and Two Mr. E. A. Sheehan, secretary of the State Viticultural Commission, says: "The wine grape vineyards aggregating 170,000 acres and the wine making plants of which there are about seven hundred, large and small, would be exterminated. A conservative estimate of the monetary value of these holdings would be $100,000,000."

Destroy them, advises C. P. C.

Mr. E. M. Sheehan has written the Property Owners' Protective Association that there are approximately 5000 acres of grapes in Alameda county. These produce wines that have taken the highest awards at international expositions. The soil and climate of the Livermore valley are particularly suited to the production of superior claret and white wines because the chalky soil of the "White crests" is not of a quality that is suitable for growing raisin grapes or other kinds of fruit. So the easy substitution of C. P. C. seems to be another delusion.

But we should not scruple to destroy these Alameda county vineyards, according to the prohibition policy.

Root up the Alameda county vineyards, advices C. P. C.

During the fiscal year of 1915, California cities and towns and counties collected $4,406,674 from liquor licenses.

In view of the fact that in California, public service corporations are taxed by the state, university properties, including mortgages are not taxed and church property "used exclusively for purposes of worship" is exempt, it falls upon the people who are property owners and rent payers to assume the entire burden of making up the deficiency which C. P. C. would have us create with a red rubber stamp on election day by wiping out this revenue.

To accommodate the people of California to the wiping out of $4,400,000 of public revenue, of more than two hundred and ten million dollars' worth of property, and the dispossession of 293,000 persons of their livelihood by Prohibition Amendments One and Two, is, in the opinion of C. P. C., "merely a matter of readjustment."

COMMERCE CHAMBER'S REPORT.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

The report of the harbor committee on the pending lease amendment to the Oakland charter advocates the granting of 55-year leases by the council and longer leases only when the same are submitted to and authorized by vote of the people.

In the report as published the last paragraph, which makes this quite plain, does not appear.

A movement is now on foot among citizens of Oakland to prepare and submit to the voters at the November election a general leasing amendment to the charter.

Will you please give publicity to this statement?

Yours truly,
HARRISON S. ROBINSON.

Oakland, August 17, 1916.

(The statement which Mr. Robinson refers to above was omitted in the publication of the full report of the Chamber of Commerce in Thursday's TRIBUNE because it had been published as an extract in the issue of Wednesday, the day the report was submitted and adopted.)

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

By a majority of 110 votes in the city of Oakland and a total of 990 in the county, Congressman Hilborn carried the primaries, defeating Judge Frick.

The several departments of the Superior Court re-opened this morning after the summer vacation.

The old Newport House on Central avenue and Second street, Alameda, was burned to the ground shortly before 11 o'clock last night.

The health officer has examined the sanitation of the library building and, as in the case of all other public buildings, found it in bad condition.

The third great raft of timber ever set afloat on the Pacific is now on the way down from the Columbia river to this port. The first one went to pieces and the second one reached the port.

The city wharfinger has difficulty in finding berths for incoming vessels, so crowded are the wharves.

MAY INVOKE LAW TO OPEN CITY VAULTS

Attorney Threatens Mandamus Proceedings to Compel City Clerk Cummings to Produce Traction Company Lease

Safe Contains Recall Ballots, Sealed Until Definite Action Is Taken by Superior Court in Election Controversy

William S. Cox, an attorney, today threatened to begin mandamus proceedings in the Superior Court to compel City Clerk L. W. Cummings to open the sealed safe in his office, which is being guarded as the container of the ballots cast in the Dr. Jackson recall election, that he may view a public document. The attorney's request was refused by Assistant City Clerk Frank C. Merritt, who told him that the vaults were sealed and could not be opened until some definite action had taken place in the present election controversy.

SAFE CLOSELY GUARDED.

Cox asked to be permitted to see the papers whereby the city leased to the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways that portion of tracks on Washington street between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets. These tracks are owned by the municipality, and have been leased to the traction company for a term of years. Merritt told Cox that these particular papers were in the sealed safe, and that the vaults could not be opened at this time.

The safe in the clerk's office has been sealed and guarded by police officers ever since August 1, the day of the recall election. When the ballots had been counted they were placed in the safe and a patrolman detailed to guard that receptacle by Commissioner F. F. Jackson. Dr. R. M. Higgins, one of the defeated recall candidates, who has asked a recount of the ballots, also has a guard on the clerk's strong box, to see that the voting sheets are not tampered with. Dr. Higgins, recount request is in the court for settlement, and may remain there for weeks.

PAPERS OPEN TO INSPECTION.

In the meantime, the safe contains many papers and records which are public property and are open to the inspection of the public upon demand.

Merritt told me that I could not see these papers, says Cox, until the safe is opened. I demanded that the safe be opened immediately, as these papers are public records and I have a right to see them when I make demand for them. Merritt told me that he "might open the safe next week." This action is illegal, and I will ask the courts to issue an order compelling the city officials to permit me to see these public records. It is necessary that I see them, and I cannot wait an indefinite period at the pleasure of city officials who are violating the law.

Postal Service Shows $5,200,000 Surplus

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—A surplus of $5,200,000 from the postal service during the fiscal year ending June 30 was reported to President Wilson yesterday by Postmaster General Burleson. The postmaster general announced that he had sent a check for that amount to the treasury.

In a letter to Burleson acknowledging receipt of the check Secretary McAdoo declared this is the third time since 1836 that surplus postal revenues have been deposited in the treasury.

Club to Hear of Smith Lease Terms

The proposed charter amendment under which a 99-year lease may be granted to F. M. Smith on the western waterfront will be the subject of a public debate at a meeting Monday night, called by the West Oakland Business Men and Taxpayers' League. The meeting will be held in the Prescott school. The speakers will be: For the amendment, Dr. Clarence Edwords; against the amendment, Roscoe D. Jones, president of the civil service board.

Loots Home; Wears Feminine Garments

STOCKTON, Aug. 19.—Arthur Guereri, a Mexican who has been arrested here, believes in helping himself.

Entering the home of Mrs. Edna Gillis he ransacked the place. The intruder cooked himself a meal, enjoyed a few bottles of beer, took a bath and changed his underwear for some dainty feminine underclothing, which he found in the residence.

Officers who arrested him almost blushed when they found the man to be wearing a woman's silk stockings and other finery.

Other Oaklands Spurn Suggestion

Change Names! Never! They Reply

If Secretary Joseph E. Caine of the Chamber of Commerce wishes to know what citizens of other Oaklands think of him he knows where the information may be found. He has been told by the citizens of Oakland, Illinois; Oakland, Tennessee, and all the other Oaklands (except Oakland, Cal.,) in the United States. And all because he asked the other Oaklands to change their names.

Caine wrote the other cities that too many Oaklands would make confusion for the postoffice; that his city was the largest, and that the chamber would pay to change their seals and signs.

They not only refused to entertain the idea, but grew somewhat sarcastic in their comment in the home town newspapers.

"The request of the California city is a trifle impertinent, but that can be lost sight of in the humor of the situation," remarks the Nashville Banner, speaking for Oakland, Tennessee, a town of 500 inhabitants, forty miles east of Memphis. "If the California city wants to be unique it it get a brand new name all its own and not waste time asking other cities to step aside in its favor."

"Our town has had the name of Oakland for quite a while, and intends to keep it," says the Weekly Ledger, published in Oakland, Illinois. "If our aldermen tried to change it we think there are plenty of convenient oak trees that might be pressed into service to make them change their minds."

Embargo on Fruit Shipments Raised

Following the complaints of the fruit men to the Interstate Commerce Commission, when an embargo against their products was placed by the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe roads over the Sunset Gulf route, announcement was made by the roads today that the embargo has been lifted. Isidor Jacobs, president of the California Canning Company, who filed the first complaint, sees victory in the present situation.

Jabobs also notified the railroads that they would be held responsible for damages in the amount of excess freight charges of the all-rail route over the Gulf rail and water route. This difference amounts to 22½ cents, which, as was pointed out, soon reaches into the millions with cars loaded with 50,000 pounds of freight each.

The Southern Pacific says the embargo was necessary because of the overcrowding of the docks at New Orleans and Galveston.

Scolded by Mother, Girl Tries Suicide

Mrs. Ella Marie Hall, a demonstrator of perfumery in a local drug store, attempted suicide at 4 o'clock this morning by swallowing the contents of a two-ounce bottle of lysol, following a quarrel with her mother. The woman is at her home, 503 Forty-third street, recovering from the effects of the poison. She was given first aid treatment at the emergency hospital.

According to the police, the suicide attempt was made when Mrs. Hall, who is but 20 years old, returned to her mother's home after attending a party which lasted far into the morning hours.

The mother and daughter quarreled. Her mother entered the room a short time later and found her daughter unconscious. Her screams aroused the neighborhood and H. Roberts, 505 Forty-third street, notified the police.

M'NUTT IS COUNSEL IN BOMB CASE

Defendants Combine on One Chief Attorney and Trials Are to Be Hurried as Court Makes Ready for Evidence

Prosecutor Declares Every Effort Will Be Made to Expedite Work of Presenting Facts in Tragic Story of Explosion

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—The announcement that Maxwell McNutt had been selected as counsel for all of the five alleged bomb plotters indicted for the murder of nine persons by the exploding of an infernal machine during the preparedness parade, was made this morning in connection with the appearance of the defendants in three separate departments of the superior court. At the same time, Assistant District Attorney James Brennan stated that the trials would proceed before Superior Judge Frank Dunne and in the other courts the cases would be held in status quo.

SURPRISE.

It was expected that McNutt would be retained by Thomas J. Mooney and his wife, Rena Mooney, as he had previously appeared as counsel for the former when he was on trial at Martinez. Surprise was occasioned, however, when the attorneys already retained by Warren K. Billings, Edward D. Nolan and Israel Weinberg declared that McNutt would be the chief counsel in their cases also.

"I do not think that it is right to have these cases spread around like three ring circles in three parts of the court," said McNutt, addressing Judge Dunne.

The court immediately announced that the trials would be held in that department and that he was anxious that the preliminary motions be speedily attended to.

"We will have a quick hearing all right, let there be no mistake about that," said Judge Dunne.

Accordingly motions to set aside the indictments presented by Attorney William Hoff Cook were put over until Tuesday.

FILES DEMURRER.

In Judge Franklin Griffin's court, where Judge Cabaniss presided, Attorney Reisner, representing Weinberg, filed demurrers and motions to set aside the indictments on the ground that the grand jury was prejudiced, influenced by press reports and that improper methods were adopted in returning the true bills.

A continuance for arguments was had until Monday.

The five defendants were then taken in Judge Cabaniss' own department for the first time. Two indictments there charged them with the killing of L. H. Lamborn, printer, 1516 St. Charles street, Alameda, and Harry Turnbull, retired manager of the Family club of San Francisco.

The accused were all arranged and their cases continued until next Wednesday.

Argument in the hearing of the petitions for writs of mandate filed by Mrs. Rebecca Donahue Nason and Mrs. Alice Rogers Catania against the Oakland City Board of Education for reinstatement as teachers in the Technical High School and the Franklin School, will be resumed on Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock before Judge William H. Waste and Judge J. J. Trabucco, sitting en banc. Two hours of pleading and citations yesterday afternoon did little more than clear the way for the final engagement of counsel.

Mrs. Nason, formerly Miss Rebecca Donahue, taught for six years in the Oakland schools. She married Byron G. Nason July 19, 1915, and was dropped from the teaching staff on June 9, 1916. Mrs. Catania, formerly Miss Alice S. Rogers, had a teaching experience of more than twenty years before she married Gerald H. Catania. She was dismissed from service at the same time as Mrs. Nason.

In the legal battle Mrs. Nason is represented by Attorney Dixon L. Phillips, Mrs Catania by her husband and the Board of Education by Deputy District Attorney Walter J. Burpee.

Chinese Couple to Be Wedded Tonight

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. L. S. Wong, and a graduate of the Oakland schools. The groom was born in China and from one of the Chinese universities he has a degree.

ANTS Running Wild

Argentine (or household) ants are causing an enormous amount of worry and anxiety to the housewife this year, to say nothing of the thousands of dollars' worth of foodstuffs that are thrown out daily. Why waste so much food at present high prices and allow yourself to become nervous and irritable, when you can use "Watch It Get 'Em" Ant Destroyer and be happy. You can get either temporary or permanent results (whichever you go after). The degree of success you obtain simply depends on how thoroughly you apply the powder in the beginning. "WATCH IT GET 'EM" does not kill instantly, but is slow acting, and is carried back to the nest, insuring general results, which become permanent as the powder POSITIVELY DOES NOT LOSE STRENGTH. MORE EFFICIENT, MORE ECONOMICAL, NON-POISONOUS; NO DANGER TO CHILDREN, house pets or FOODSTUFFS. Send 6c for trial can. ASK YOUR DEALER; accept no substitute. 19 to 25 Minna St., S. WAR ON ANT PEST URGED BY U.C. PROF.

Community Campaign Against Argentine Plague Advocated by University Pedagogue at Parent-Teachers' Meeting

Alameda County Is Particular Center, Says Woodworth, in Advising Housewives How to Combat Peril Successfully

Community campaigns against the Argentine ant plague were advocated yesterday by Prof. C. W. Woodworth of the University of California in a lecture before the W. P. Frick Parent-Teacher Association at the Frick school. Prof. Woodworth, an expert on entomology, took up the Argentine ant, its habits, its methods of foraging and gave the method for its extermination.

A community effort is the best and most simple may we can get rid of this insect, Prof. Woodworth said. The Argentine ant is now a plague in California and more particularly in Alameda county, the city of Alameda being thoroughly covered with them.

PEST IN BERKELEY.

At one time Berkeley was covered with this little pest and they were in such numbers in the downtown districts that a butcher shop and two candy stores were forced to shut down until something could be done to alleviate the trouble. The university took a hand and made an investigation of this species of ant, its derivation and its habits, and we found that the most economical and easiest way to get rid of the pest was to use a weak solution of arsenic.

Our experiments with arsenic proved so promising that the city of Berkeley took hold of the plan and now ant-killing is a part of the duties of the city. If a person is bothered by the insect, all that is necessary is to call up the city hall and notify the authorities that they are bothered by ants. A man is sent to the applicant and steps taken to kill off the insects.

The best means to accomplish this end have been found to be, first, a one-fifth per cent solution of arsenic in enough brown sugar and water to make a syrup and this placed in jars with sponges. The Argentine ant, the best forager of all ant types, will then eat this arsenic-poisoned syrup, which is not strong enough to kill outright. The foragers take the food to the nests and feed the young and queen ants, thus putting the whole ant community in a state of slow arsenic poisoning. After a few weeks' time the insect village will be so thoroughly poisoned that they will die in large numbers and will not be found dead around the pantry and ice box."

CIVIC ORGANIZATION.

Prof. Woodworth advocated a civic organization for the extermination of these ants and although only individual efforts are being made to kill them off in Oakland and Alameda, he said it would be much cheaper for the residents so afflicted to pay a small tax and all of the city to handle the plague.

A company of university students has been formed in Berkeley for the express purpose of making ant-killing a business, and they are making a decided success, said Woodworth. They use the same methods advocated by myself and it would be of a benefit to have other organizations of this kind in Oakland. It costs Berkeley $1600 to fight these insects and this is reasonable compared to the damage done by them. New Orleans uses this weak arsenic solution and it is from there that our ants originally came.

The battles of this species of ant with those of other species were described by Prof. Woodworth who said that the Argentine ant was the best forager of all ants and that they were also the best fighters. They were the most hardy and could live and thrive where another species could not survive.

Antipodean Social Life Sermon Topic

"The Religious and Social Life and Institutions of the the People of Australia and New Zealand" is to be the subject of a stereopticon sermon-lecture by Rev. John M. Jackson at the Eighth Avenue M. E. church Sunday night, August 20. It will deal with the various forms of social control for which these two countries are attracting attention, including compulsory arbitration, wages boards, government life insurance, government railways and land policy. This lecture is the third of a series on "Religious and Social Life and Institutions." Special music by a chorus under the direction of P. A. R. Dow will render Gounod's "Sanctus" (St. Cecilia), and his "From Thy Love as a Father" (Redemption). Mrs. Arthur Eickenscher will sing Weldig's "Thus Shall Love's Kingdom Best Be Known."

TO TALK ON McDEVITT.

J. E. Snyder will lecture at Hamilton hall, Thirteenth and Jefferson streets, tomorow night. His subject will be "The Case of William McDevitt." McDevitt is on trial before Mayor Rolph of San Francisco to answer charges preferred against him by the law and order committee of the Chamber of Comerce. He is accused of uttering inflammatory remarks at a meeting at Dreamland ring and the request is made that he be dismissed as election commissioner.

Waterfront Lease Discussed

Committee Favors Proposal

League Will Oppose Change

No Referendum Can Be Had, Says Senator

Arguments attacking the proposed amendment to the charter to give F. M. Smith a ninety-nine years lease on the western waterfront were made by former Mayor Frank K. Mott, State Senator E. J. Tyrrell, Commissioner W. H. Edwards and other speakers at a mass meeting last night at the municipal auditorium, held under the auspices of the Taxpayers' league. Dr. L. F. Herrick, president of the league, was chairman of the evening.

Circulars giving reasons for opposing the proposed charter amendment, which is to be voted upon Tuesday, were distributed at the door. It was announced that even should the amendment carry Tuesday, a fight will be continued against the ratification of the amendment by the state legislature.

PERMITS NO REFERENDUM.

That the amendment, once it is carried, would rob the voters of the right of referendum with regard to this lease, was the statement of Senator Tyrrell. Tyrrell said:

There is no specific declaration in the charter concerning a referendum on leases, although a vague power is given in Section 178 for a referendum on all ordinances.

It is my opinion that if you pass this amendment, you will write the terms of the lease into the charter, and will close the door to any possible referendum of the acts of the city council in carrying out that amendment in granting the lease, provided the commissioners keep within its terms.

LOSE POWER OF REDRESS.

In other words, if you pass this lease you have placed in the hands of three commissioners the power to grant the lease, and you have no redress if you change your mind, or if you don't like the terms they accept.

Commissioner Anderson said the other day that I have not much influence left at Sacramento. Well, I introduced the bill which gave these lands to the city, and it was only because there was a twenty-five-year restriction in the charter on leases that such a limitation was not placed in the bill conveying the land.

Former Mayor Mott recounted the history of the fight for the waterfront from early days, and told of the way the city gave it away to Horace Carpentier in 1852, and of the long litigation to get it back, of promises made and broken. He said:

Now today we are again being asked to turn over the only piece that remains of this great heritage. The same old promises are being held out, the same glowing pictures being drawn of what these promoters will do for the development of the waterfront in return for a 99-year lease.

This is a proposition for the city to lease for 99 years the property between the Key Route and Southern Pacific moles, comprising 268 acres, fronting upon the bay, ideal for industrial purposes. They offer only $1,500,000 in improvements in front of this rock wall across the Key Route basin in dredging and building docks and wharves and $3,500,000 in improvements on the 268 acres in warehouses and railroads and factories.

WHY IS SMITH AWAY?

Now it is alleged that F. M. Smith is to be the lessor of this land. But Smith is spending his vacation on Long Island, New York. If he is really interested in a lease of this splendid property for a century of time he should be here to explain what he is ready to do.

But the request is actually coming from two men who have no standing in the business world, two men who are merely promoters. I mean no disrespect to them in saying this. But we have the right to know for whom this is being promoted. This they have refused to reveal. They say they will make this known when the lease is granted, and that we will be satisfied.

We would rather be satisfied now. Business men, members of the Chamber of Commerce, pleaded with these men to delay the election until this thing could be threshed out and placed on a business basis. They would not heed the request.

SUCKER EVERY MINUTE.

Commissioner Edwards said:

We should be plain spoken and not mince our words. There's a sucker born every minute, is a trite saying current among the members of the gambling fraternity. Oakland is to be put to the test by the upper ten of that fraternity and if we vote for that lease we will belong in this category of suckers.

Remember this, that after these promoters have expended $1,500,000 in dredging and wharves they may need some more sand for filling purposes. The contract provides that the city will have to pay fifty-fifty on the dredging to get that sand to make the desired fill.

But what do these people actually want this land for. It looks like they wanted it for a railroad terminal and not for actual industrial purposes. You know what a railroad terminal is? It is switching yards and freight yards, with a big fence around them. No wonder they want it for 99 years.

UNIONS TAKE ACTION.

Following the action of the Building Trades Council and the Central Labor Council in endorsing the proposition to lease the land back of the western waterfront and the request that all affiliated unions take action at the polls next Tuesday looking to a change in the charter to permit of a long-term lease of the land in question, several individual unions have taken action and have called on their members to work for the proposition. Yesterday Material Teamsters' Union, Local No. 577, adopted the following resolution:

"The Material Teamsters' Local, No. 577, in regular session assembled, endorse the western waterfront lease proposition and ask all members to do the same."

In addition to this endorsement about fifty members of the union who are now interested volunteered their services to work at the polls and get other union voters out on election day.

Amendment to Help City, Declares Speaker

Declaring that the only issue before the people of Oakland at this time was the question of removing the limitations of the charter in providing for waterfront development by private enterprise, the Progress and Prosperity Committee unanimously went on record last night endorsing the amendment to be voted on Tuesday, providing for the lease of tidelands back of the western waterfront — the so-called F. M. Smith lease proposal.

In taking favorable action, the Progress and Prosperity Committeemen pointed out that the terms of the lease, the period of time which it should cover, were all matters of future consideration.

At the same time E. B. Bull, chairman of the committee, asserted that the people of Oakland would be given sixty days under charter provision to referendum any action the city council might take in authorizing the lease of tidelands as proposed in the amendment to be voted on Tuesday. Bull read the section of the charter relating to referendum.

A letter from F. M. Smith, addressed to Chairman Bull, was read. After calling attention to the fact that the proposed ordinance was to provide the way for the development of the western waterfront now, instead of at some indefinite future, Smith said:

I wish to emphasize that in all my business relations with the city, I desire to be in harmony with the people of Oakland, because in this instance our interests are identical. If this proposition succeeds, it can only succeed because it is beneficial to Oakland as well as to the people who will furnish the money for the improvement.

F. A. Briggs moved the passage of the resolution favoring the charter amendment, which was adopted unanimously. The resolution reads as follows:

That the Progress and Prosperity Committee goes on record as favoring the passage of the proposed amendment to Subdivision 41 of Section 51 of Article IX of the charter of the city of Oakland to be voted on next Tuesday, August 22, 1916.

It was further ordered that the secretary send a copy of the resolution to each member of the committee with the request that he lend his assistance to the citizens' committee for outer harbor development, in securing the adoption of the amendment.

GIRL FOUND AFTER HUNT FOR 13 YEARS

Missing From Oakland Since 1903, Florence Gannon Coming Back to This City With Her Grandparents to Live

Child Found Employed in Big Store at Sacramento by Bay Mariner's Wife; Past Traced at Conference in Capital

Nellie House, or Florence Gannon, who has been discovered to be by Captain and Mrs. N. C. Lorenzen of this city, will probably be brought to Oakland tonight. The wealthy Oakland couple, who claim her as their grand child, are in conference with her foster mother in Sacramento today.

The girl, found working as a saleslgirl in Sacramento, is declared by the Oakland couple, to be the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gannon. They have been searching for her for thirteen years, according to their statements to the Sacramento authorities.

The 15-year-old shop girl heard a story that reads like a novel, in the Oakland couple's account of how, when her mother died, she was taken to the Salvation Army Home when 2 years old; how she was adopted by Mrs. Nellie House, a cook, and how she was finally traced by her grandparents.

Mrs. Lorenzen says the identification of the girl is positive. Pictures of the girl, taken when she was a baby, and in possession of Mrs. House, correspond with those in the possession of the Lorenzens. The trail was taken up from the Salvation Army Home at Lytton, where the grandparents first discovered where the child had been sent.

Florence Gannon, as she is now called, will return to Oakland to meet two sisters, provided Mrs. House makes no contest to the efforts of the grandparents to bring her back. They declare that they will educate her and furnish her a good home.

C. E. Wilson, probation officer at Sacramento, says there is no legal evidence of the girl being the granddaughter of the Oakland couple, and that permission of Mrs. House would therefore be necessary to obtain guardianship over her.

A conference between Mrs House, Mrs. Lorenzen and the probation officers, in which all details of the queer case were gone into, was held this morning.

"That's the girl," declared Mrs. Lorenzen as Florence was ushered into the head office. "I haven't seen her since she was a baby, but she has her mother's eyes and soft, fluffy hair."

Mrs. Lorenzen gazed fondly and interestedly at the girl and told her she wanted to take her home to her grandfather, who is captain of the San Francisco bay ferryboat Melrose, where Elizabeth and James live, and Florence said she wanted to go and live with her grandparents and brother and sister.

Mrs. Lorenzen related today the story of her search for the girl, extending over thirteen years, from the time she was taken from the Salvation Army Home in Oakland. This search covered Mayfield, San Jose, Stockton and even Los Angeles. Once Mrs. Lorenzen saw that girl with a woman supposed to be Mrs. House, and at another time she caught a glimpse of the girl at the ferry in San Francisco, but she lost her in the crowd.

But Mrs. Lorenzen kept up the search, hoping sooner or later to trace her finally, feeling that it was her duty to unite the three children in her family. It was not until she learned that Clorence Gannon was known as Minnie House that she was able to press her search to a definite goal. The girl's parents are both living, but are separated. The mother has remarried and is in the East.

To the People of Oakland:

The election August 22, is to enable the City of Oakland to have the outer harbor developed now by private capital.

In order that there may be no misapprehension the following salient points are called to your attention:

In return for a lease on 268 acres of submerged land lying back of the western waterfront the proposition is, briefly:

To expend at least $5,000,000 on city property; $1,000,000 the first two years and $1,000,000 each succeeding year. Of this, $1,500,000 is to be expended in the construction of modern docks, dredging the harbor for deep-sea vessels and in filling city land; $3,500,000 to be expended in constructing modern warehouses, factories and railway terminals on city land.

The City to retain ownership, control and management of its waterfront and receive all revenues therefrom.

The fulfilment of the contract to be guaranteed by a good and sufficient bond.

The election does not make a lease, nor does it obligate the city to make one. The details of the lease will be worked out after election by a committee of representative citizens and city officials.

In order to be a success the proposition must be fair both to the city and to those who will furnish the money.

Respectfully,

F. M. SMITH

and Associates.

Double Geo. T. Sloans Cause Police Mistake

RICHMOND, Aug. 19.—Searching for a man named George T. Sloan, wanted in Little Rock, Ark., and Salt Lake City, on a charge of embezzling $20,000 in bonds, local police rounded up a man named George T. Sloan, who left Salt Lake City on the same day as the man really wanted but turned out to be the wrong man. The right Sloan was arrested the same day in San Diego.

According to Sergeant Oliver Wylie the case was one of the most peculiar incidents in the history of the local department. On August 11 the local department received a wire from Sheriff Hutton of Little Rock and Chief Parley White of Salt Lake, asking them to hold George T. Sloan, whose address was general delivery, Richmond. Detectives watched the postoffice and arrested a man named George T. Sloan, who answered the description of the alleged embezzler. A few hours later a wire was received that the right man had been arrested in San Diego.

WHARFINGER IS WANTED.

RICHMOND, Aug. 19.—The city of Richmond wants an experienced wharfinger to take charge of the recently completed municipal wharf. A man who has acted in the same capacity before is desired and the man who gets the job will be expected not only to look out for the business which naturally develops but to boost the new enterprise on his own initiative. City Clerk A. C. Faris will receive applications for the position up to September 1. The position will pay $1500 per year. G. W. Ford has filed application for the position of night-watchman.

SNAKE ATTACKS ARNOLD.

RICHMOND, Aug. 19.—James P. Arnold, secretary of the local lodge of Elks, who is on a camping trip in the mountains near Portola with Bert Curry and Postmaster S. B. Jenkins, came near losing his life in an encounter with a rattlesnake. The snake wrapped itself about Arnold's leg and he seeking to get away, lost his footing and rolled down a mountain side. The snake's fangs could not pierce the heavy leggings but Arnold was badly bruised up by the fall down the steep incline.

FORESTERS TO PLAY WHIST.

RICHMOND, Aug. 19.—A whist party is being planned by the Ancient Order of Foresters for the last Friday in September. There will be refreshments and dancing. On the committee in charge are G. Rollin, L. F. Moore, Albert Oberg and G. G. Amazeen. The party will be held at Pythian Castle.

Four new members will be initiated at the next meeting of the lodge.

MAKE LONG AUTO TRIP.

RICHMOND, Aug. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swartout have returned from a 1300-mile auto trip, which included a tour of the northern part of California and Southern Oregon. The party went as far north as Myrtle Creek, Oregon. "The worst road we found," said Swartout, "was between Redding and Dunsmuir, California."

CLUB MENDELSSOHN MEETS.

RICHMOND, Aug. 19.—A charming program was rendered at the meeting of Club Mendelssohn at the home of Mrs. E. H. Ferguson, 330 Eighth street. Mrs. Ferguson was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. H. L. Carpenter and Mrs. Josslyn. Cut flowers and potted plants were used in the decoration of the dining room and living room of the Ferguson home.

MOOSE BALL TONIGHT.

RICHMOND, Aug. 19.—The grand ball to be given by the local Moose Defenders at East Shore Park this evening promises to be one of the events of the season. Reports made at the meeting of the Moose lodge are to the effect that many tickets have already been sold. The ball room has been beautifully decorated for the occasion.

CIVIC CENTER CLUB MEETING.

RICHMOND, Aug. 19.—Mrs. N. M. Blankenship was hostess to the Civic Center Club at her home when a delightful afternoon tea and card playing was enjoyed.

VALLEJO NOTES

VALLEJO, Aug. 19.—Minnehaha Council, No. 1, Degree of Pocahontas, held an interesting meeting at Samoset hall last Thursday evening, after which a banquet was given in honor of Mrs. Rita Bettencourt, who was elevated to the position of Great Minnehaha of the Degree of Pocahontas of California at the Great Council of the order held at Eureka last week.

Past Great Keeper of Wampum Lucretia Mullaney, acted as toastmistress and called upon the various delegates to the great council for long talks.

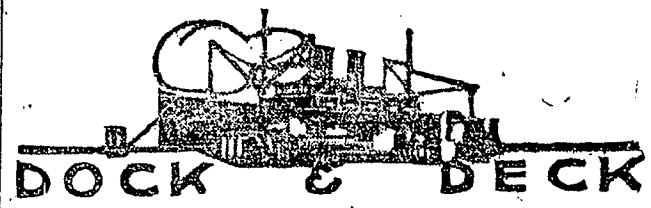
The committee of arrangements for the successful affair consisted of Mrs. Cora Fowles and Mesdames Worland, Egan, Dierks, Lenhardt, Phillips, Orford and Whitthorne.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, Aug. 19.—The drawings for the eight boilers which are to be constructed at Mare Island for the battleship California arrived at the navy yard Friday from the Bureau of Steam Engineering. The boilers are to be of the Thornecroft speed type and it is expected that the actual work will start on the job during the coming fall months. The drawings show that the boilers are to be similar in design to the ones that were recently finished at the local naval establishment for the destroyer Shaw.

The Mare Island cantilever crane will be placed in commission on Monday.

Orders have been issued at Mare Island to undock the three "F" submarines August 28. The divers will be moored alongside the Intrepid after they leave the cradle and it is believed that they will not be ready to be placed in active service until some time next spring.



Making a good run from this port, the schooner W. G. Irwin arrived at Roche Harbor, where she will load a cargo of lime for Oakland. On her last voyage to this port, her skipper, Captain Bunn, became ill, and the vessel was delayed. Captain John Kitchen took command.

Steamer Violet is due to arrive here tomorrow from Puget Sound. She will load freight for Mexican ports and will make regular trips. The Violet was formerly the survey steamer McArthur of the United States government.

LAST OF LOG RAFT FLEET IS OFF.

The last of the Benson log rafts left today from Portland and will go direct to San Diego. The Hammond company have two more rafts left at Astoria, which are to come to this port. Both companies build four rafts each year.

SCHOONER ESTHER BUHNE ARRIVES IN PORT.

Three-masted schooner Esther Buhne arrived in port from Manila after a long voyage of 95 days with 264 tons of copra, for Atkins & Kroll company. She will go on the drydock to be cleaned and painted before leaving on another cruise. Captain Anderson reports light winds during the passage across the Pacific.

HULL FOR STANWOOD HERE FROM NORTH.

The hull of the new steamer Stanwood arrived here from Coos Bay in tow of tug Defiance. Captain Bender in command. The hull has 971,000 feet of lumber on board. Her boilers and engines are ready at the Oakland shipyard and when her cargo is out, the work of installing them will begin at once.

BIRKDALE AGAIN MADE SHIPSHAPE.

British ship Birkdale, which has completed her repairs at Moore & Scott's shipyard, Oakland harbor, has been chartered by Balfour, Guthrie & Company. She will load a cargo of 2500 tons of barley at Port Costa, for England. The Birkdale arrived in port on June 19 from South America with a cargo of nitrate and while unloading, a fire was discovered which occasioned considerable damage. She was chartered by Hind, Rolph Company, but the charter was later cancelled. Her cargo is ready for her to load.

The little two-masted schooner Lilly, which left Oakland three days ago, arrived at Fort Bragg where she will load 210,000 feet of lumber for Honolulu. This is the longest voyage the Lilly has ever made. Her new master, Captain A. B. Guhl, who resides in Fruitvale, has gone on in command. She is owned by the Gardner Mill company.

THOR CHARTERED BY GRACE, TO LEAVE COAST.

Norwegian steamer Thor, coal carrier for the Western Fuel company, will make one more trip between Oakland and Nanaimo, for coal, and she will then be turned over to W. R. Grace & Co., who has chartered her for six months with the extension of three more. She will be used on the Pacific coast. The Thor has been running for the Western Fuel company for many years, and makes regular trips of 10 days, bringing a cargo of 7500 tons of Wellington coal. She will be greatly missed in Oakland harbor, as she is the largest freighter that comes to this port.

SHARES DEVELOP FIRM TENDENCY AT CLOSE

Opening Prices in Prominent Issues Were at Small Losses But Active

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said:

The opening prices in the greater number of prominent issues were at small losses, compared with Friday's closing on a volume of business that showed moderate activity in most stocks.

Changes in the first part of the session as a rule were confined within narrow limits, and after the first dip prices in a large number of the leading shares developed a firmer tendency under the influence of covering of shorts.

Sentiment in Wall Street circles was not particularly depressed in consequence of the uncertain railroad labor situation and in railroad stocks only minor reactions from the final figures of the preceding day were recorded.

WHEAT JUMPS 3 POINTS; CORN UP

Hot Weather Causes Rise in All Provision Issues.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Shorts covered their contracts on a large scale today and early prices were up more than 3 cents, compared with yesterday's close. December opened 1½@3¼c higher, at $1.48½@1.50¼ and sold at $1.50⅝. May advanced to $1.54, 3½c over yesterday. Hot weather and the wheat strength sent corn up. December opened ¾@⅞c higher, at 74½@74⅝c, and sold to 74c. September advanced to 86c, a gain of 1¼c.

Still higher prices were scored later. The close was strong, with net gains of from 3⅛@4¼c.

The corn close was strong, 1½@2c up. Oats were active and firm. December opened ⅛@⅝c higher, at 47⅜@48¼c.

A squeeze in September pork was the feature of the provisions market. The covering purchases of a few shorts sent the price at the opening to $27.47½, a gain of 67½c. Lard advanced 2½@5c and ribs 5@10c.

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.—Wheat goes to record price of season. No trading. Spot and futures bids 2c to 3c higher. Bluestem, $1.20; Forty-fold, $1.18; Club, $1.17; red fife, $1.18; red Russian, $1.15.

EXPERT OPINION.

Bartlett, Frazier & Co.—The action of the wheat market speaks for itself and needs no comment from us except that we believe the day of sharp breaks from this level is over. We believe yesterday's advance in corn merely a starter for further substantial advances.

Ware & Leland—Advancing prices for wheat would seem the logical sequence to conditions. Purchases of corn seem proper on reasonable recessions, also oats.

Lamson Bros.—The wheat market has a strong undertone. It will probably not be well to sell corn short until September government report is out of the way.

Finley, Barrel & Co.—We anticipate much higher prices for all grains.

S. B. Chapin & Co.—Can see nothing but very high prices in wheat. We look for active and strong corn market. We look for good buying support in provisions on setbacks.

Clement-Curtis—The American producer is a free seller of the new crop and the available wheat will shortly be in the hands of the millers and exporters and provide against any serious setback in prices.

Lamson Bros. & Co.—Sold a car of No. 2 yellow corn at 89c, the highest price in over twenty years.

NEW YORK BANKS INCREASE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The statement of the actual condition of banks and trust companies for the week show that they hold $127,593,20 reserves in excess of legal requirements. This is an increase of $24,505,080 over last week.

BUSINESS MORE ACTIVE IN WEEK

Bradstreet's Notes 8 Per Cent Increase for Oakland and Vicinity Over Year Ago.

Bradstreet's weekly report of business conditions in Oakland and vicinity notes an eight per cent increase in retail business during the week as compared with the corresponding week of a year ago. It says:

Retailers report business as more active the past week. The larger department stores state that sales have increased 8% during the last week or ten days in comparison with the corresponding period of 1915. Collections show some improvement. Fall lines are beginning to move, and sales in millinery and the cloak and suit lines are somewhat stimulated. The larger houses have been having considerable difficulty in obtaining goods from the East, due to unsettled labor conditions in that quarter. Strikes have been active among the garment workers in New York City during the summer months, and manufacturers have been unable to supply the local trade with the desired quantity of goods. This condition, however, has shortly been eliminated, and fall and winter merchants report the various lines as being almost completed. Sales have increased slightly among the boot and shoe trade, while a decided increase is noted in men's apparel. Dry-goods also appear to be moving more actively. Grocers report business as picking up, while collections appear to be fair in this line. Wholesale grocers and jobbers state that city sales are increasing daily, while a slight decrease is noted in outside business. Canneries continue to operate the full shifts, and the fruit men report that the crop is far greater than the earlier reports predicted. Manufacturers of iron and steel goods continue operating full and business in this line remains heavy. Local manufacturers in this line are very much pleased with the activity of the iron works, and a number of families will be brought to Oakland as the result of the election to permit one large iron works to control the waterfront suburb. Considerable interest is displayed in manufacturing centers regarding the coming election, which will undoubtedly decide the leasing of Oakland's western waterfront.

WATERFRONT.

Opinions among the local business men differ widely on this proposition, yet they all unite in the opinion that the waterfront should be developed to make the community rank foremost as a manufacturing center on the Pacific Coast. Electrical companies report a number of nice contracts and state that business in this line is increasing materially, and are of the opinion that within the next month a number of new contracts will be let. Heavy hardware is in large demand, but light hardware and business materials find a slackened market, although a slight increase is noted in the latter products over last week, and it is stated while building is somewhat slow a number of smaller residences are being constructed and local contractors state that this activity is unusually good for this period of the year. While no large jobs of note are under way at the present time there is rumor that a number of large buildings will be constructed shortly and contracts will be let at an early date.

LUMBER MARKET.

The lumber market continues steady and local companies report considerable difficulty in obtaining bottoms for transportation. Shipping continues heavy and one of the local lumber companies has let a contract for the construction of two modern steamers to be used for freight purposes. While there has been no apparent dissension among the local labor organizations, local manufacturers and retailers are uneasy regarding labor trouble in eastern quarters, and particularly the pending railroad strike, which would undoubtedly paralyze the commerce of the country.

Crop reports in the vicinity of Oakland appear to be satisfactory, and farmers appear to be making their products at increased prices with healthy crops. Banks continue to report a surplus of funds while deposits in the local institutions show a healthy tenor.

Western Banks Lead All Federal Reserves

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Banks in Western States, with an average surplus of 132 per cent in excess of the legal requirements, led all the banks of the reserve system in surplus on hand June 30. A geographical analysis of the returns for that date made public tonight, shows the following surplus figures:

"New England States, $48,000,000, an excess of 52 per cent above requirements; Eastern states, $883,000,000, excess 44 per cent; Southern States, $211,000,000, excess 103 per cent; Middle States, $520,000,000, excess 62 per cent; Western States, $165,000,000, excess 182 per cent; Pacific States, $161,000,000, excess 111 per cent.

Increase in Bank Clearings Is Evidenced

Gross earnings were $14,363,685, a gain of $1,171,894.

Cities in which the corporation operates, under the names of its subsidiaries, are Buffalo, Elmira and Lockport, N. Y.; Bloomington, Ill.; Colorado Springs; Harrisburg, Lancaster and Wilkesbarre, Pa.; Richmond and Terre Haute, Ind.; Leavenworth, Kan., and New Orleans.

BOUGHT BY SANTA FE.

The Minkler Southern Railway Company and the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company have filed with the railroad commission an application for authority for the former company to issue to the Atchison corporation an additional $78,000 of capital stock. The Minkler road extends from Minkler in Fresno county to Porterville, Tulare county, sixty miles. It is operated by the Atchison company, which has advanced the money for its building, and intends to make it a part of the Atchison system.

MILLIONS FOR MOTOR TRUCKS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—What was reported to be the largest order for motor trucks placed in this country since the outbreak of the European war was cabled today to a New York exporting house by one of the enteate allied governments. Delivery will be made at the rate of 80 to 100 trucks a week, until late in 1917, with the prospect that the contract will be extended. The order amounts to many millions of dollars.

Sentenced to Stay Outside of Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 19.—Dr. Gustave Phillip von Braun Ehrenstoem, banished from Oregon by District Judge Davis, left for Astoria, where he was to take a steamer for San Francisco.

The judgment of Judge Davis was that the physician should be arrested if he ever returned to this state.

Dr. Ehrenstrom was arrested on a charge of threatening to kill his wife and little child, who had taken refuge in the Louise home to escape him.

Along the HIGHWAY

By EDMUND CRINNION.

The following road report is compiled from the latest bulletins received by the Touring Bureau of the California State Automobile Association and tell as close as is possible the general conditions of the roads throughout the state. The Automobile Department of the TRIBUNE does not vouch for the accuracy of these reports due to the fact that no two motorists will report the same on road conditions. The reports follow:

Coast Route South—Leave via Foothill boulevard to Hayward and thence over state highway to Niles, Mission San Jose and Milpitas to San Jose. Leave San Jose via South First street and continue on state highway through Morgan Hill, Gilroy, San Juan, Salinas and to Chualar, thence six miles of fine improved road where rough dirt road is encountered to just this side of Camphora, thence highway to Soledad, rough dirt road to Greenfield, thence highway to within about three miles of King City. This three miles, also first few miles on Jolon grade road very sandy, thence over fair dirt road via Jolon grade to Bradley and to the county line where highway is encountered to Paso Robles, San Luis Obispo and Arroyo Grande. Between Arroyo Grande and Santa Maria fair dirt road, thence highway to Orcutt, thence five miles of rough dirt road to Blake, then highway to Los Alamos and fair dirt road to Los Olivos, Solvang and Las Cruces excepting road over Gaviota pass, rough. Highway from Las Cruces to Gaviota, thence coast road through Orella, Naples to Elwood in fair condition, with detours for construction and creek crossings, rough, thence highway from Elwood through Santa Barbara to Ventura. From Ventura very fair oiled road to El Rio, thence dirt road to Camarillo, thence over Conejo grade through Newberry Park, Calabasas, Cahuenga Pass, Hollywood boulevard, Sunset boulevard to Los Angeles.

Valley Route South—Leave Foothill boulevard to Dublin Canyon boulevard, to Dublin, Santa Rita, Livermore, through Altamont Pass to Tracy, Banta and Mossdale School House, where right-hand fork is taken to Manteca, and continue on state highway through Modesto, Turlock, Merced, Madera, Fresno and to Kingsburg. Short detour around bridge across Kings river just below Kingsburg, thence highway to Visalia where either the Porterville or Tulare route may be taken to Delano. These routes both dirt roads from fair to rough. From Delano highway to Bakersfield south to foot of Tejon grade, thence good dirt road over the pass to Kern county line, thence highway to Bailey's, thence good gravel road over Ridge route to Saugus and highway to Los Angeles.

Pacific Highway North—Take Foothill boulevard to Hayward; Dublin boulevard and continue to Livermore. From Livermore state highway through Altamont Pass to Tracy, turn left just this side of Official Garage in Tracy, at Association's sign, and take Island road to Stockton, fine macadam road. State highway between Tracy and Stockton getting broken and rough. Stockton to Sacramento highway. From Sacramento completed highway to Roseville and Lincoln, thence about 14 miles of fair dirt road to just beyond Wheatland. (This stretch under construction but temporary route in a fair condition) thence paved road to Marysville. From Marysville to Live Oak, highway completed excepting oiled surface, open for traffic. Live Oak to Gridley, Biggs, Nelson and Durham under construction. Temporary route in fair condition. Durham to Chico under construction but passable. Chico to the Tehama county line highway completed except oil surface, open for travel, thence rough to Tehama and highway to Red Bluff. Red Bluff to Shasta county line new highway grade, good, thence fair dirt road to Redding. From Redding fair dirt road to just this side of Pitt river, where new highway grade is encountered through Baird to junction of Kennett road, then fair dirt road to just this side of LaMoine where new dirt highway grade is encountered to Southerns, thence rough dirt road through Simms, Castella, to Dunsmuir. From Dunsmuir state highway completed through Sisson to Weed, from Weed to Yreka fair dirt road, thence new highway over the Siskiyou mountains completed to Ashland except short stretch rough detour at railroad. Route north through Oregon in very fair condition.

Route North From Benicia—From Benicia state highway to Cordelia, Fairfield, Vacaville and to within one mile of Dixon, thence good dirt road through Yolo county to the county line, follow old road instead of along side construction on new highway, very rough. Thence highway practically all completed through Williams, Maxwell, Norman, Willows, Orland to Corning. From Corning via Tehama, Proberta, and State highway to Red Bluff.

Napa Valley and Lake County Points—Benicia to Vallejo two miles under construction but passable, thence over three miles of paved road, then good dirt road to Napa. Napa to St. Helena, good excepting two miles between Napa and Yountville being repaired, then fine dirt road to Calistoga and Middletown, over toll road very good, thence fair dirt road to Kelseyville and Lakeport. Road to Highland and Harbin Hot Springs, and from Rutherford to Aetna Springs, all in good condition. Calistoga to Mark West, good.

Calaveras Big Trees, Markleville and Lake Tahoe—Leave Stockton via Belota road to Valley Springs, or via Stockton to Lodi, thence to Valley Springs, both in good condition. From Valley Springs to San Andreas, under construction in some places but passable, thence over fair to rough dirt road to the Big Trees. From Big Trees to Markleville now passable and very good excepting two short stretches near the summit. Easy road eastbound, but extremely hard grades coming east.

To Lake Tahoe—Take either Causeway route or via Stockton to Sacramento. Leave Sacramento via Benali Boulevard to Auburn. Auburn ot Truckee, good. Road around the lake being widened and repaired. Return via Placerville and Folsom to Sacramento in excellent condition.

To Feather River Country and the Big Meadows—Route to Feather River inn via Sacramento, Auburn to Truckee, thence north to Hoart Mills good. Sattley and Mohawk, rough. Feather River inn is at Blairsden. Route via Sacramento, Marysville, Oroville, also open and in fine condition to Oroville, thence fair dirt road to Merrimac. From Merrimac to Buck's road to Quincy. In making round trip go via Oroville and return via Truckee on account of grade. Chico to Pratville via Butte Meadows, good, via Sterling City, open but rough. The best route via Butte Meadows; Oroville to Quincy via Forbestown, LaPorte and Gibsonville, open. Oroville to Big Meadows and Lake Almanor, good. Maps for trip may be secured at Oroville Chamber of Commerce. Avoid Sterling City as road is bad going north from there. Take road by Pentz out of Oroville.

Lake Tahoe, Mono Lake, Tioga Road, Yosemite Trip—In making this trip motorists are strongly advised to go via Tahoe or Calaveras Trees returning via Tioga road on account of grades on entire trip. Take road to Myers at lower end of lake. On Myers side of Placerville road at large sign, take road to Woodfords, continue north from Woodfords to road leading east to Minden and Gardnerville, thence south to Coleville, Bridgeport and Mono Lake, just before reaching Moro-at-fork—if right hand road is taken much sand is avoided. From Mono fine dirt road with nine miles climb to the summit, good, thence to Tenaya lake and over rough road to Crockers.

To Yosemite Valley—Big Oak Flat road very rough between Crockers and Hamilton from hauling. Coulterville roadbed in fair condition. Mariposa road fair. Raymond road in fair condition. Coarse Gold from Fresno, fair with rough places.

Del Monte—Via state highway through San Jose, Gilroy, San Juan, Salinas to Del Monte, all paved. Ocean Shore boulevard between Castroville and Monterey closed for four weeks for paving.

To Sacramento via Tunnel Road and Causeway—Leave via Tunnel road to Walnut Creek, all paved. Take direct road between Walnut Creek and Pacheco. From Pacheco to Martinez good dirt road. Ferry from Martinez to Benicia every hour from 7:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. excepting 12:30 noon. Saturday, Sundays and holidays service continued to 10:30 p. m. Leave

Benicia on Main street to J, thence on state highway to Cordelia, Fairfield, Vacaville to within one mile of Dixon, thence dirt road to just this side of Davis, thence highway to Sacramento via Causeway.

Coast Route North, Sausalito, Special Auto Boats Daily—

Route—Paved in Sausalito. Highway to Larkspur graded and graveled in good condition. Through Larkspur, fine, through Kentfield, paved thence to Ross and San Anselmo, good; paved in San Rafael. San Rafael to Marin county line rough and some dust over new fill and cut for construction, thence over highway to Petaluma. Paved three miles beyond Petaluma, thence fair dirt road to within about eight miles of Santa Rosa where rough dirt road is encountered to Santa Rosa. Santa Rosa to Healdsburg, state highway. Healdsburg to Cloverdale good. Tence highway grade to Ukiah all completed excepting three miles. Ukiah to Willits about 10 miles good dirt road, balance new highway grade, thence fair dirt road to Laytonville, very narrow and sharp turns, and to 12 miles beyond, then road improves to Harris. From Harris, Blocksburg road to Bridgeville, thence to Eureka, in fair condition. From Harris to Eureka via Fruitland, Dyerville, Rio Dell in good condition. New bridge across Eel river at Elinor. Route from Ukiah to Mendocino, thence to Fort Bragg, fair dirt road. Fort Bragg to Eureka via Westport and Dyerville, good. Fort Bragg to Eureka via Kenny and Petrolia, good. Eureka to Crescent City, good, to Grants Pass, fair. Crescent City along Ocean north to Marshfield and Coos Bay country, fair.

Marin County Roads—All in good condition. Road between Marshalls and Tomales open. Road between Bolinas and Willow Camp, open. San Anselmo through Lagunitas to Tocoloma and Olema, good and to Point Reyes and north, good. San Anselmo to Bolinas good mountain road, but crooked, requires very careful driving.

To Santa Cruz—Route via Los Gatos to Glenwood fair. Both Boulder Creek and Bear Creek roads, open. San Mateo to Crystal Springs closed, go via Belmont. Crystal Springs to Halfmoon Bay under construction. Mt. Herman road rough. Ocean Shore route to Santa Cruz, macadam to Halfmoon Bay and San Gregorio, San Gregoria to Pescadero under construction, rough but passable, thence rough road for about six miles out of Pescadero and fair dirt road to Santa Cruz.

Trinity Highway from Eureka to Redding or Red Bluff—Fairly good from Eureka to Peanut. From there on to Red Bluff, fair. Peanut to Redding fair.

Richmond-San Rafael Ferry Running—Starts from Richmond at 7:30 a. m. and every two hours thereafter until 5:30 p. m. Sundays until 7:00 p. m. From San Quentin at 8:00 a. m. and every two hours until 6:00 p. m. Sundays until 7:30 p. m.

SLEW FAWN; FINED.

REDWOOD CITY, Aug. 19.—Jack Sleeth, a Pescadero rancher, on trial for killing a fawn, explained to Justice of the Peace George Seely that the deer were so thick in his orchard that a rifle shot which killed a buck also struck a fawn standing behind it. Sleeth was fined $50.

Have You Chosen Your Homesite in LAKEWOOD PARK

The Lowest-Priced High-Class Residence Property in Oakland or Piedmont

Now on the Market

LAKEWOOD PARK ATTRACTED MANY BUYERS OF RESIDENCE PROPERTY LAST SUNDAY. THIS PHOTOGRAPH SHOWS THE NATURAL DRAINAGE OF THE TRACT.

That LAKEWOOD PARK is absolutely and without question the best buy in all the eastbay region was fully demonstrated last Sunday, our opening day.

More Than $40,000 Worth of Property Was Sold breaking all records in Oakland and Piedmont for years.

Not one of these purchasers bought until he had come to LAKEWOOD PARK and had fully investigated.

We want YOU to come tomorrow and see these attractively located lots.

40 to 75 Feet Wide and 100 to 165 Feet Deep

All you have to pay down is

$75 to $100

This is the first opportunity ever offered you to secure a homesite in the Head-of-the-Lake District, the choicest residence section of Oakland or Piedmont for such a small payment.

We have now on file in our office the names of some of the most prominent men and women in Oakland and other eastbay cities who have bought property in LAKEWOOD PARK. Some of them have already refused a profit of $100 to $200 offered them for the lots they have just purchased.

While planning for the home you intend to own some day you have thought of all you want it to be. Here is what you get at LAKEWOOD PARK:

LOCATION LAKEWOOD PARK lies between Piedmont and Sather Parks, at the junction of Lakeshore and Winsor avenues. It is the last tract in Oakland or Piedmont to be subdivided and all the surrounding property has been improved with homes ranging in value from $6000 to $60,000.

TRANSPORTATION LAKEWOOD PARK is only eight minutes from Fourteenth and Broadway by the Lakeshore (Mandana) carline. The new Key Route line, upon which work has already begun, will run from Twenty-second street and Broadway, out Grand avenue and up Lakeshore avenue, to within a few hundred feet of the property, with a five-cent commutation rate to San Francisco.

IMPROVEMENTS Macadamized streets, cement sidewalks, concrete curbs and gutters, sewers, water, gas and electricity. Poles and pipes in back of each lot. Drainage culverts have been provided to take off all surface water.

TERMS You pay 10 per cent cash, $15 per month, with no interest or taxes the first year; then 6 per cent interest on deferred payments; 10 per cent discount for cash. We will build you a home for $500 cash, balance easier than rent.

RESTRICTIONS Building restrictions of $2500 to $3000 with high-class bungalows permitted. Also race and build back restrictions, insuring only high-class homes. These restrictions will be carried twenty years.

OUR AUTOMOBILES WILL BE AT YOUR service all day tomorrow. Phone Lakeside 4800 and we will send a car, or call at our main office. Or take Lakeshore avenue car from Fourteenth and Broadway and get off at Walavista avenue. Branch office on tract. Main office open evenings.

Please send me illustrated folder, map and price list of LAKEWOOD PARK.
